

POTTERS' CONVENTION GETS DOWN TO WORK

The National Brotherhood Assembles at Wheeling Stronger and More Harmonious Than Ever.

GROWTH OVER 1,000 DURING THE PAST YEAR

BY O. H. BOOTON.
Staff Correspondent.
Wheeling, May 4.—National President A. S. Hughes, at 10:30 o'clock this morning, wielded his gavel, calling together the thirteenth annual convention of the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters. The convention is remarkable in many ways.
Never before has the organization been so prosperous and powerful. Hundreds of members have been enrolled since the convention held in Trenton last year, and the representation has been increased by 50 delegates. The exact strength of the Brotherhood cannot be determined from the number of delegates, as some of the locals organized in the past few months are entitled to but one representative.
The report of President Hughes, which was presented to the convention this afternoon, showed an increase of more than 1,000 members since last year's convention. The organization has been equally prosperous financially.
One prominent member said yesterday that if he had all the money that had passed through the national treasury during the year he could build and equip a large modern pottery.

Reports from all the national officers were presented today. That of President Hughes was a complete resume of the work of the year and the growth and prosperity thus shown was most satisfactory. The principal cause for congratulation was the return to the organization of the Trenton jiggermen, and there is general rejoicing over their return to the fold, even if it has given the Brotherhood one of the most perplexing questions to be solved in the convention.
The report of First Vice President Hutchins covered every detail of the reorganization of the jiggermen, and was one of the most interesting parts of the day's proceedings.
The actual work of the convention was scarcely touched upon today.
When President Hughes called the delegates to order in the Carroll club's auditorium Harry Halles, of this city, introduced Andrew Jackson Sweeney, Wheeling's popular mayor. Mr. Sweeney made a short address, notable more for its sincerity than its eloquence. He congratulated the potters upon their thorough organization, the intelligence of the delegates and assured them of the freedom of the city. Wheeling is certainly doing herself proud in caring for the members of the convention.
President Hughes, who does things rather than says them, followed with a neat little address, thanking the chief executive for the hospitality extended and the great interest manifested on all sides in the convention.
He announced the members of the credentials committee and the convention then recessed until after dinner. The credentials committee had very little to do.

THE OLD LAW NOT REPEALED

Mayors May Still Appoint City Boards of Equalization.

DOW LAW AND NEW DRINKS

From a Staff Correspondent.
Columbus May 4.—The discovery has been made that the law providing for city equalization boards was not repealed by the code and that mayors may still appoint these boards when a request is not made by the county auditors for boards of review to the state board of assessors and appraisers. Several weeks ago Auditor of State Guilbert sent out a circular letter to county auditors advising them that it was their duty under the Longworth law to make application to the state board of assessors and appraisers for boards of review to take the place of city equalization boards, the letter indicating that the law providing for equalization boards had been repealed. Mr. Guilbert finds that he was mistaken, and that the law still stands.
Last winter Special Counsel Smith
W. Bennett rendered an opinion which the state board of assessors and appraisers construed to mean that revaluations in cities could be equalized save by boards of review. Assuming this to be the case the board arranged to appoint boards for the 71 cities of the state. Bennett declares he never issued such an opinion, and both he and Attorney General Sheets admit that the equalization law has not been repealed, but hold it is unconstitutional.
The state board has decided not to take up the matter of appointing boards of review until furnished with a legal opinion concerning the status of the matter. Attorney General Sheets is now working on an opinion which will define their duty. The courts have held the Longworth board of review act to be valid. Governor Nash says that it was not the intention of the framers of the code to change the equalization law.
In an opinion rendered to Auditor of State Guilbert, General Sheets takes a very advanced stand on the Dow law, and, in case his view of the statute is upheld by the courts, there will be a sudden falling off in the sale of many so-called "temperance drinks."

Some time ago the auditor of state notified the county auditors not to place persons selling "Bishop's beer,"
"Real beer" and other liquors said to contain not over 2 per cent of alcohol, on the Dow tax lists.
Since this order was issued there has been a great increase in the number of places selling these drinks, and a falling off in the Dow tax.
The matter of the taxability of the traffic in these liquors was referred to the attorney general, and he now holds that the sale of all malt liquors, whether intoxicating or not, renders the seller liable for the payment of the Dow tax.
Heretofore it has been held that malt liquors to be taxable, must contain at least 2 per cent of alcohol, but the attorney general decides, from the language of the section of the law, that it was the intention of the legislature to tax the sale of all malt liquors.

ENGINE DERAILED BY A SIDEWIDE

A Railroad Accident Yesterday Which It Took Much Time to Remedy.

The Conway drag side-wiped a freight train in the local yards yesterday morning, and the engine of the former train was overturned.
Both trains had been on the siding to allow the passenger train due here at 10:05 to pass, and upon its departure both started for the main tracks at once. The firemen and engineers of both trains escaped injury by jumping. Neither of the trains was going at a rapid rate of speed, and it was difficult to understand how they could have come together with sufficient force to upset the engine.
The wreck train was summoned from Wellsville and the entire day was consumed in clearing away the wreckage.

Aged Man Insane.

Lisbon, May 4.—(Special.)—Harry

WYMAN AS POLICE CHIEF APPOINTED BY NEW MAYOR

Morley Continues as Chief of Fire Department, Both Appointments Being Temporary—Other New Officials Take Oath of Office.

W. A. Weaver is now mayor and John Wyman chief of police.
Mr. Weaver took the oath of office and was thereby sworn in as mayor of the city at 10 minutes before 9 o'clock this morning by the retiring executive, William C. Davidson. The scene was an imposing one and was enacted in the presence of City Auditor Willis Davidson, Sanitary Policeman Burgess, Officer Clifford Dawson and ex-Chief of Police Thomas V.
Thompson.
At the conclusion of the brief ceremony Mayor Weaver was given a hearty handshake by all present and during the day he has been busy accepting congratulations.
Shortly after Mayor Weaver took his seat ex-mayor Davidson bade farewell to the city hall and expressed as his only regret that he did not like to leave the pleasant associates that have been with him around the city hall during his administration.
"They are all good fellows, and from that standpoint I never spent a happier period in my life," said he.
"Nevertheless I am truly thankful that my time is up, and my sympathy will ever go out for the men who hold the position."
Before leaving, however, Mr. Davidson spent some time in lending Mayor

Davidson information incident to the books, office and gave him the assurance that he would do all in within his power to assist him in an understanding of the duties and the manner in which numerous questions are disposed of. Mayor Weaver in return thanked him for his courtesy and will listen kindly to any suggestions offered.
It did not take Mayor Weaver long to get down to business, and though he had no offenders to deal with he was soon called upon to discharge one of his official duties—that of administering the oath of office to the newly-elected officials.
The first to stand the ordeal was Jack Shenkel, of the board of public service. He was sworn in at 9:35 o'clock. Following in a very short time, City Auditor George E. Davidson, City Auditor Willis Davidson, City Treasurer Chris Horton and Councilman H. E. Moon took the oath.
By this time the city hall was thronged with interesting citizens and many were the conjectures as to the several appointments to be made by the mayor. And while all were whispering their thoughts John Wyman, whom the News Review predicted would get the appointment as chief of police, stepped into the midst, tarred a few moments among them, heard their varied guesses and then made his way into the office of Mayor Weaver, handed him an unimpeacha-ble bond and stood waiting the orders of the chief executive. He was not kept long in suspense.

Mayor Weaver said: "Inasmuch as it becomes my duty to prevent the city from being without a chief of police until one is formally appointed by me,
I will now appoint you, Mr. Wyman, temporary chief."
This ceremony was also followed by hearty handshaking, as was the one immediately after when Clinton Morley was sworn in as temporary chief of the fire department. The temporary appointing means without doubt that both Mr. Wyman and Mr. Morley will be permanently appointed as soon as sanctioned by council, and it is thought that both will receive the undivided support of every member of council at the first meeting to be held tonight.
It is thought by tonight every member of the municipal government required to be sworn in will have taken the oath of office, that with the exception of the board of public safety, which Mayor Weaver states will not be appointed until after a conference with the new council.

THE NEW CHIEF'S DECLARATION

While in conversation with a News Reporter this afternoon
Chief of Police John Wyman made a declaration that will meet with the hearty approval of every fair-minded resident of the city. He said:
"Everything that is done by me, or under my direction, will be for the best interests of the city. I intend to instruct my police officers to enforce every law as written in the ordinance book. Some people, I expect, will object, but that is not my lookout. It is a matter of business in carrying out the duties of a chief of police, and it will be on business principles that I will work. If exceptions are taken to the ordinances the grievances must be related to others than me. I am simply here to enforce them and I most assuredly will do so.
"I have not at the present time any changes in contemplation for the members of the force. There are some very good men among them and I anticipate no removals, at least for the present. It will be several days before everything is down in working order, but I think the police will readily understand exactly what I want and will do my bidding. I intend to have each officer live up to the rules that have been written governing them. They must report on the minute and after signing the report book, they must get out and patrol their beats. The city hall will not be a loafing place for them. They are employed to work 12 hours and must do so. I expect there will be some change in the beats, but for the present they will remain the same."

Court Orders.

Lisbon, May 4.—(Special.)—Leave has been given the defendant to answer by May 29 in the case of J. C.

company, of Salem. The case of Harry Hughes against Charles W. Powell without prejudice to a new action.

A HIGH HONOR FOR NEW MAYOR

Prohibitionists Propose W. A.
Weaver As Gubernatorial Candidate.

HOW THE BOOM STARTED

From a Staff Correspondent.
Columbus May 4.—A gubernatorial boom has been started for W. A.
Weaver, East Liverpool's new Prohi-bitionist mayor. At a meeting of Prohibitionists at Martin's Ferry, W. W.
Scott, of Bridgeport, a lumber dealer and leading worker of the Prohibition party, proposed Weaver for governor and the suggestion seemed to meet with general favor. It is urged that because of his being the only Prohibitionist mayor in the state Mr.
Weaver is the logical candidate for governor.
State Chairman F. N. McCartney attended the Martin's Ferry conference which was a meeting of the committee of Belmont county and is of the opinion that Mr. Weaver's candidacy will receive general approval among the Prohibitionists of Ohio. Two other candidates are announced for governor, Rev. N. D. Creamer, of Columbus, and Rev. H. F. McLane, of Toledo.
The former is a Methodist and the latter a Disciple minister.
Mr. Weaver has not defined his position to the leaders and they do not know whether he could be persuaded to accept the honor should it be tendered him.
Chairman McCartney has received notice from Secretary C. F. Bough, of the Columbiana county Prohibition committee, that the committee will meet in East Liverpool next Monday to select delegates to the state convention and decide whether or not to nominate a county ticket. McCartney will be present. He thinks the committee will put a ticket in the field.
Scott, the Belmont county man who proposed Weaver for governor, may be a candidate for state treasurer, and E. M. Long, of Cadiz, is talked of as a candidate for auditor of state.
These are the only Prohibitionists announced so far from eastern Ohio.

BARNEY MULRINE SUSTAINED BAD INTERNAL INJURIES.

Physicians Fear He May Not Survive
Through the Coming Night.
As the result of an accident occur-ing on last Wednesday night, Barney Mulrine, a saloonist of West Market street, is momentarily expected to die.
All of last night and the greater portion of today physicians were at his bedside, and it is feared that he will not survive the night.
Mr. Mulrine was descending the stairs at his home when he tripped and fell headlong to the floor below, sustaining internal injuries that have caused him much pain. He seems to be suffering from injuries over his entire body.

Old Time Offenders Appeared Before His Honor Sunday Evening.

Charged with being drunk and disorderly, three of the Woolley family of the shantytown district were taken before Mayor W. C. Davidson last evening at about 9 o'clock. It was the last tribunal over which the retiring mayor officiated and one that brought fresh to his memory the characters of the wildest district of the city.
Several weeks had elapsed since one of the shantytown people had been before him and he was believing that they had turned him down and were not going to give him a farewell visit.
Officers McDermott and Mahoney placed Joe Woolley and his two sons, Ralph and Frank, under arrest late in the afternoon while they were creating more disturbance on the beach that has been witnessed in many months. The trio were pretty drunk and were fighting among themselves and making life generally miserable for every one in hearing distance.
The officers were summoned and had considerable difficulty in rounding up the bunch. Mahoney was the first on the scene and when Officer McDermott arrived he was on a box car trying to locate his family.
McDermott got Ralph while he was running up the railroad track at a 2:10 gait and when he put him un-

CARPENTERS' DISPUTE IS FINALLY ADJUSTED

Men Returned to Work This Morning—Will Start the Eight Hour Day at 8 O'Clock in the Morning.

FAVORABLE STATUS IN OTHER TRADES

The carpenters' strike is settled.
The action was taken at the conference held Saturday night between the bosses and a committee representing the union. The strike has been on since April 1. John Stewart, John D.
Wiley, A. D. Cope and George B. M.
Beatty were present in behalf of the union, and D. F. Nellis, Harvey Me-Henry, Robert Stevenson and Claude
Nause acted for the contractors.
The meeting was a most harmonious one and the session was brief. The point which has kept the two sides apart was so trivial that both appreciated the wisdom of an early move for settlement. The men had insisted upon an eight-hour day to begin at 7 o'clock in the morning, with seven hours on Saturday. The contractors objected to 7 o'clock as a starting point and wanted the hour fixed at 8 o'clock. They were also loath to grant the seven-hour day for Saturday. The settlement was effected by the men waiving the point as to the time for beginning work, fixing it at 8 o'clock and they will take but 50 minutes at noon in order that they may secure the short day on Saturday. In consideration of these concessions from the men the contractors gave up the point with reference to the completion of all old contracts at the old rate and conditions.
The carpenters' union had held a meeting previous to the conference and at that time the strike committee made its report covering the points just outlined. It was stated that the contractors would settle on that basis, and after some little discussion the committee was authorized to accept the terms proposed.

All the interested parties and the public in general are highly gratified at the prospects for an immediate resumption of work by the carpenters, who have been idle for more than a month.
The committee that represented the journeymen's union in the conference with the contractors today gave out
the following statement:
"The carpenters and contractors have adjusted their grievances on a satisfactory basis, and harmony prevails everywhere. All work will soon assume the former activity that has marked our progress for the past few years. It is understood that all carpenters can return to their former positions."
The teamsters' union is making remarkable headway in its canvass for signatures to the new scale of wages.
Unlike any of the other trades who have had trouble this spring, it was necessary for the teamsters to see every team owner in the city individually in order to secure his signature. The boss team teamsters have no combination, and could not be reached through that method. In a sense this was an advantage to the men, since they could present their case through a committee without the necessity of

The Number of Candidates, Like the Number of Ballots, Keeps Increasing.

HOW THE RECORD STANDS

The number of votes recorded in the News Review prize contest on Saturday was quite up to the average. Many are already beginning to send in the series of coupons, which is an example worthy of being followed by all.
The contest, interesting from the start,
will grow more so from this time on.
In order to economize space the News Review has decided hereafter to omit from the published list of candidates all persons who have received less than 100 votes. A careful record will be kept of all votes cast, and as soon as any person's total reaches 100 the fact and the name will be announced. Any person interested desiring information about the scattering vote can obtain it from the record kept at this office.
The following candidates have up to date received 100 votes or more:

Board of Public Service Will Take It Up At Its First Meeting.

Jacob Shenkel, member of the board of public service, stated this morning that a meeting of the board will like-

ANNIVERSARIES OF LISBON PASTORS

Two Clergymen at the County Seat Who Have Had Long Pastorates.

Lisbon, May 4.—(Special)—Rev. J. P. Anderson yesterday began his eleventh year as pastor of the Presbyterian church here. Incidentally he called attention to the fact that this is the centennial year of the local church, a congregation having been organized here almost simultaneously with the settlement of New Lisbon in 1803. The pulpit was supplied with ministers from Pittsburgh until 1807, when Rev. Vallandigham took charge. Rev. George Fowler observed the fifth anniversary of his pastorate of the Christian church here yesterday morning. Twenty members have died since he assumed charge.

NEW SOCIAL CLUB

Has Been Organized And Will Occupy the Rooms of the Old Sirius Club.

A new social club has been organized in the city, the membership of which is made up of young men from East Liverpool's smartest society set. The organization will be known as "The Holland Club," and will be chartered under the state law. Officers were elected yesterday as follows: President, Frank Lowe; vice president, Clyde Huss; secretary, A. G. Hynes; financial secretary, Ralph Shivers; treasurer, Gaylor Albright; trustees, Chris Metz, James Stanley and George Rieby.

The new society starts off with a membership of nearly 25, and the rooms of the old Sirius club have been rented and will be elaborately furnished at once. A committee has been appointed to arrange for a reception and banquet to be held some time the latter part of the month.

PEORIA NOTES.

Peoria, May 2.—There is little change in the condition of trade at the Peoria plant. All departments are being operated a part of the time, but the clay hands are still loading a few days a pay.

Local union No. 27 held a very interesting meeting Tuesday evening. The delegates to the Wheeling convention were not instructed in the matter of who they were to support for national president, and the choice of the delegation will be left to the discretion of the individual members. T. J. Duffy is the favorite, and will doubtless receive the undivided support of the men from Peoria. Of the several candidates for national secretary so far mentioned in the News Review, P. J. McKeone is most favored. The members of local union No. 27 remember when Mr. McKeone was secretary in the early days of the Brotherhood, and they cannot forget his devotion to the cause and the sacrifices made by him both in the matter of time and money when the organization was not in a position to pay out money. At that time there was practically no money in the office, and Mr. McKeone was compelled to attend to the duties of the position and work at his trade at the same time in order to make a living. To the honor of these facts our delegates believe he should be honored with the office now that the position pays a salary sufficient to justify a man in devoting his entire time to it.

Our delegates left here on Saturday night, and expected to reach Wheeling on Sunday evening. They will pay East Liverpool a visit before returning to Peoria. The object is to gain some information with reference to the conditions governing the glost and bisque warehouse women.

ROUTINE MEETINGS ONLY.

The meetings of several local unions in the city will undoubtedly be void of interest during the present week. All will meet, however, but little beyond the regular routine business will be transacted. For several weeks the members of the various unions connected with the Brotherhood have been busily engaged in the task of forming resolutions and giving instructions to their delegates. There are few trades in the organization which are not out for a change of some sort in the working conditions, and the delegates to the national convention at Wheeling this week have been instructed accordingly.

AMONG THE WORKERS.

Misses Camille O'Donald and Alice Belmont, finishers at the Union, are the guests of friends in Wheeling for the week.

Clarence Highfield, jiggerman at the Union, is still passing around the cigars over the arrival of a 10-pound baby at his home.

E. J. Owens, who was in town Sunday, says two biscuit kilns have been drawn at the Minerva plant with good results and that the first glost kiln will be piced this week.

Barney Williams, who has been employed as a kilnhand at the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles pottery for several months, has severed his connection with that concern and will leave in a few days for Salem.

TYPOGRAPHICAL UNION HOLDS ITS ELECTION

Officers Chosen for Ensuing Year—An Eight-Hour Day for Job Printers.

Vice President—F. B. Martindale. Secretary—Harry D. Arnold.

Recording Secretary—Criss McConnell. Sergeant-at-Arms—John Worcester. Trustees—Charles Trescott, Fred Smith and E. P. Miles.

Delegates to International Typographical union convention at Washington, D. C.—F. Leslie Trump; alternate, R. D. McHenry.

Delegates to Allied Printing Trades Council—F. B. Martindale, Fred Irwin and E. P. Miles.

The committee appointed some time ago to form a scale to govern the job printing trade made a report recommending an amendment to section 10 of the regular scale of prices as follows: "Forty-eight hours constituting a week's work." This means simply the adoption of the eight-hour day in the job line. The newspaper departments have had the shorter day for several years.

The scale committee was continued with instructions to alter and present the new scale at once, and it will go into effect June 4.

The Wastes of the Body.

Every seven days the blood, muscles and bones of a man of average size have two pounds of worn-out tissue. This waste cannot be replenished and the health and strength kept up without perfect digestion. When the stomach and digestive organs fail to perform their functions, the strength lets down, health gives way, and disease sets up. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure cures the stomach, and all digestive organs, to digest and assimilate all of the wholesome food that may be eaten into the kind of blood that builds the strength of the mind and body. Kodol cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. It is an ideal spring tonic. Sold by Alvin H. Bulger.

NEW RAILROAD MAY NOT COME

Jones & Laughlin Line Projected to the Lakes Is Likely to Be Abandoned.

AN AGREEMENT REPORTED

With the Coal Trust Whereby the Big Steel Firm Will Turn Over Its Business to the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie.

Cleveland, May 4.—Jones & Laughlin, the big steel company of Pittsburgh, have abandoned their intention to build a railroad to Lake Erie. This rumor is around in high financial circles.

The Pittsburgh Coal company has abandoned its intention of building south of Youngstown and it is said that arrangements will be made with the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie railroad for the Pittsburgh entrance.

These two rumors, which are well founded, stirred up railroad circles very much. The Jones & Laughlin line was expected to become one of the powerful factors in the situation and was to have been rushed through. The port has been purchased at Mentor Marsh, the lake terminal; the right of way had been obtained through to Pittsburgh; and the Cleveland terminals had been arranged for. This big independent steel concern wanted to be on a parity with the other steel makers and own its means of transporting the raw material and was going to build a railroad. The route surveyed was impossible. It would cross four summits, each of which had a grade approaching the summit of two per cent. This is the maximum for steam railroads, and on such a grade material cannot be carried cheaply. The other carriers would be using the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie and the French lines alongside of the Jones & Laughlin line, with a maximum grade of three-tenths of 1 per cent. The steel company decided to abandon its project and it is understood will make other arrangements. The cost of carrying the material was too great.

The Pittsburgh Coal company is getting around its project in another way. That company did not want to be engaged to carry out its project of building a railroad if the end could be obtained in some other way. What the coal trust wanted was terms, and it matter little how they came. It seems that the coal company owns the West Side Belt line at Pittsburgh, a very important piece of railroad. It has connection with some of the best factory districts and turns out an immense amount of tonnage in a year. The rumor now is that the Pittsburgh Coal company will turn this into a combination between the P. & L. E. and the proposed road of the Pittsburgh Coal company, and that the latter will agree not to build between Youngstown and Pittsburgh, but will give its business for that direction to the P. & L. E.

This is one of the strongest combinations that could have been made. It is rather distressing to the other carriers in this territory and has a big influence on the business through the coal ports. It seems that the Pittsburgh Coal company has continued in its decision to build the road from Youngstown to Mentor Marsh and there construct its coal docks for the handling of a good portion of its lake business. The Pittsburgh Coal company is what is known as the coal trust of the lake shipping section of the Pittsburgh district. It practically controls all of the coal that comes out of the Pittsburgh district, having only one competitor to date of any consequence. The deal which is about to be put through is one of the first magnitude. Taken with the announcement that the Jones & Laughlin company intends to abandon its project to build to the lakes from the Pittsburgh district, the development is most important and clears the air remarkably.

LUTHERAN CONFERENCE AT ROCHESTER TODAY

Many Interesting Church Topics Will Be Discussed By Ministers.

Rev. J. G. Reinartz, pastor of St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church of this city, left this morning for Rochester, Pa., where he will attend the 85th convention of the Middle conference, Pittsburgh synod, of the Lutheran church. The meeting is being held in St. Paul's church, Rochester, and the first session was held this afternoon. The convention will last until tomorrow evening. The program follows:

STRONG EVIDENCE OF FAITH

Will Reed Guarantees That Hyomei Will Cure the Worst Cases of Catarrh in East Liverpool.

When one of the most reputable concerns in East Liverpool guarantees that a medicine will effect a cure or he will return the money, it speaks volumes as to the merits of the remedy. It is in this way that Will Reed is selling Hyomei, the treatment that has made the many remarkable cures of both acute and chronic cases of catarrh in East Liverpool and vicinity. Hyomei is not a pill nor is it a liquid that has to be taken with a tablespoon or wine glass. Just breathe it in by the aid of an inhaler that comes in every outfit and benefit will be seen from the first treatment.

It destroys all germ life in the passages and lungs and enriches and purifies the blood with additional ozone. It cures catarrh of the head and throat, or of the stomach, liver and kidneys. Wherever mucous membrane contains catarrhal germs, there Hyomei will do its work of healing. When using this treatment the air you breathe will be found like that on the mountain high above the sea level where grow balsamic trees and plants which made the air pure by giving off volatile antiseptic fragrance that is healing to the respiratory organs.

by the president of conference, the Brubeck.

Tuesday, 2 p. m.—Devotions, led by the Rev. H. S. Gilbert; "The Church—Hindrances to Its Prosperity"—(a) From Within, the Rev. G. S. Seaman; (b) From Without, the Rev. D. L. Roth, D. D.

Wednesday, 9 a. m.—Matins, read by the Rev. R. G. Rosenbaum; business of conference; essay, "Extemporaneous Preaching vs. Written Sermon—Which?" the Rev. T. S. Brown; speaker, the Rev. W. H. Fehr, essay, "The Illustrative Element in Preaching," the Rev. D. H. Geissinger, D. D.; speaker, the Rev. D. M. Kemmerer.

The X-Rays.

Recent experiments, by practical tests and examination with the aid of the X-Rays, establish it as a fact that catarrh of the stomach is not a disease of itself, but that it results from repeated attacks of indigestion. "Kodol can I cure my indigestion?" Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is curing thousands. It will cure you of indigestion and dyspepsia, and prevent or cure catarrh of the stomach. Kodol digests what you eat—makes the stomach sweet. Sold by Alvin H. Bulger.

Paving the Public Square.

Lisbon, May 4.—(Special)—Work will be commenced in a few days on the paving of the section of street above the northeast corner of the public square, with the completion of which the entire square will be paved. The property owners about the square will bear the whole expense, about $2,000. C. S. Speaker has bought the bonds for the amount.

A Prisoner in Her House.

Mrs. W. H. Layba, of 1001 Agnes avenue, Kansas City, Mo., has for several years been troubled with severe hoarseness and at times a hard cough, which she says, "Would keep me in doors for days. I was prescribed for by physicians with no noticeable results. A friend gave me a part of a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with instructions to closely follow the directions and I wish to state that after the first day I could notice a decided change for the better, and at this time after using it for two weeks, have no hesitation in saying I realize that I am entirely cured. From this time on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will be in my house constantly." The remedy is for sale by Alvin H. Bulger.

EIGHTY-FIVE YEARS OLD

Wellsville Woman Surprised On Her Birthday By Relatives From This City.

Relatives to the number of 50, including the children, grandchildren and great grandchildren of Mrs. Mary Dillon surprised her at the residence of her son, Aaron Dillon, of Wellsville. The occasion was the eighty-fifth anniversary of the lady. The party from the East End went in a body and were joined at other points along the car line by numerous other relatives. The day was pleasantly spent by those present and were royally entertained by Grandma Dillon, who is enjoying the best of health.

A SECOND OPERATION

Necessary in the Case of a Woman Who Badly Injured Her Hand.

Dr. W. M. Calhoun went to Wellsville today, to be present at an operation which will be performed on his sister, Mrs. H. C. Aughrbaugh, who recently inflicted an injury to her hand with a cleaver, while engaged in cutting meat. At the time Mrs. Aughrbaugh cut her hand the wound was not considered dangerous, but did not heal very rapidly, and the hand was operated on. Last week Mrs. Aughrbaugh's arm commenced to swell, causing her great pain and the danger of blood poisoning setting in was feared, making a second operation necessary.

The attending physicians and the many friends of the lady are hoping that serious results will not follow.

Pipe Laying Finished.

The merchants of Mulberry street are gratified to know that the work of putting in the new water pipes will be finished some time today. The pipes have been scattered about the street since last winter, and now that they are underground the street will be in much better shape. The force of men of the water department who have been engaged in doing this work will go from the East End to Brown's pottery, where much work will be done.

Expect to Find Oil.

The Rock Run Oil and Gas company on Saturday let the contract for the first well of six that will be drilled on their leases at Knoxville. An Allegheny concern will do the drilling. The well of Harrison Rinehart at Knoxville has shown good indications as far as it has been drilled and is expected in today.

Has Bought a Store.

Rev. J. W. Howard, of the Free Methodist denomination, has purchased the store of Alex. Chafin, of Erie street, and will continue at the same stand. Mr. Chafin and family will move this week to the James West farm, one and one-half miles out from Calcutta, which he purchased some time ago.

EAST END AFFAIRS.

Mort Calhoun spent Sunday visiting relatives at Fairview, W. Va.

Mrs. Cui Price, of St. George street, left this morning on a business trip at Mechanicstown.

Edward McAfee is very ill at his home on Ohio avenue, threatened with an attack of fever.

A fine baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. George Clendenning, of Oakland, on Saturday morning.

Mrs. Wade Wolfe, of First avenue, lies dangerously ill of typhoid fever. Last night Mrs. Wolfe was delirious and her friends are much alarmed at her condition.

S. L. Polen, who has been ill at his home in Wellsville for the past five weeks with typhoid fever, is steadily improving and hopes to be able to return to work the latter part of the week.

Miss Blanche Mowen, of Pennsylvania avenue, has been confined to the house the past few days, very ill. Her condition shows but little signs of improvement and it is feared that typhoid fever may develop.

THE NEW ACTS OF THE APOSTLES

A Return to a Condition of Apostolic Days Is Desirable

A Grand Desideratum—The Example of the Disciples a Lesson to the Modern World—Sermon By Rev. Dr. Pratt.

The spacious auditorium of the First M. E. church was filled to its capacity at both the morning and evening service yesterday and as usual beautiful music and able sermons were highly enjoyed by everyone present. The pastor, Dr. Pratt, was somewhat fatigued as the result of his strenuous labors during the past few months but he seemingly cast aside all signs of weariness and in his characteristic manner preached with the same vigor and enthusiasm that has endeared him so conspicuously to his large congregation.

In the evening Dr. Pratt chose as his subject, "The New Acts of the Apostles." It was founded on the 42d and 43d verses of the second chapter of the Acts. "And they continued steadfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers. And fear came upon every soul; and many wonders and signs were done by the apostles." In part he said:

"This great book of the Acts began by a statement of the wonderful things that Christ had done; of his marvelous teachings and his wonderful life. It closes with the story of Paul dwelling in his own house and preaching for two years the grand lessons of Jesus. He preached the kingdom of God and taught those things which concern the Lord Jesus, with all confidence, no man forbidding him.

"Since then the church has been writing its own acts of apostles. The apostles of today are not to be compared with those of that generation. Though in the days of Christ and of Paul the apostolic writers were enthused and endowed with power and the spirit from an apparent giver it must not be accepted now that there are none living who are not possessed of the same gifts and inspiration. One of the greatest apostolic writers of the present age is Father Coburn and the ages are considered no writer of the apostolic epoch was more able or more eminently qualified for the work. Men, it seems, have been hitherto afraid to write on the teachings and beautiful lessons of the Bible. They seem to fear their capability, thinking themselves unable to define the laws of God in a manner acceptable. In these days they are wrong, for the same God that put his hand on holy men of ancient times puts his hand on the righteous men of today. He places in their hearts the same spirit and principle.

"While we are to get much from the life of Christ as portrayed by the apostolic writings, we must not forget or neglect the writings and teachings of the inspired ones of today. If the Bible were destroyed, completely obliterated, we would not long be without a book of equal greatness. Our great men of today, those whose very hearts and souls are bubbling over with the spirit of God would write a book that would save the entire world. Jesus would come to earth and cry again, 'I would suffer and die for him, well pleased.' The God that led the first church is ready to lead the church of today. There is not a soul goes forth less sanctified, less ordained, less supervised or less appointed than was bestowed upon Paul.

"Come thou day of socialism, if it be of a Christian nature. We need a reproduction of the apostolic era when everything was boarded together and used for the salvation of Jesus Christ. The time is soon to come when the people of the world will carry the riches and put it altogether for the grand and noble purpose of planting religion in the uttermost parts of the universe, to the people who know not the love of God.

"God is the same always. He is the same at our wedding feasts, at our enjoyments, and our weepings. He is as thoughtful and interested in us as in those of old. There are men among us over whom he is bending and urging to go forth and do as did the apostles. He will support them. He will endow them with the radiant love and triumphant glory possessed by the apostles. Let us go forth as did they, resistless, and come back as triumphant! This is a day of continued apostolic work and it is now the duty to preach the love and greatness of Christ from pulpits in every country of the known world."

CHRIST'S SUFFERING FOR THE WORLD

Theme of An Eloquent Sermon By Rev. W. M. Hamilton at Presbyterian Church.

Rev. Wallace M. Hamilton, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Coshocton, occupied the pulpit at the First church here yesterday both morning and evening. He is an able speaker, and both discourses were attended by large congregations and were thoroughly enjoyed.

The suffering of God through Jesus Christ for the salvation of the world was the theme taken up by the speaker. The deliverance of the children of Israel was touched upon as an illustration of the reality of vicarious suffering. The Israelites endured many tribulations and suffered much for the sins of their fathers. The prophet draws a vivid picture of the vicarious suffering of God, a picture that is answered only in Jesus Christ, the light of the world.

The scripture is the law that holds the world together. The truth of vicarious suffering has long been established, even though it appears perplexing to many. Is it right that I should suffer for the sins of another? No man has ever stood firm under the many temptations which we meet in every day life that he did not aid a score of others. No man ever fell that he did not take a score of others with him.

Vicarious suffering holds us close together. Our civilization has only been possible through vicarious suffering, and that which ought to keep you and me from sin is the fact that God suffers because we are not more willing to see the right. Vicarious suffering is greater than the real suffering of the world. It is not suffering of moral or religious origin, but the suffering of daily life. No one has ever risen to his full height that has not born the trials and sufferings of others. This is not sentiment, but the truth of God himself. It is the suffering of God through Christ that made the transformation of the world possible.

In conclusion the speaker said: "May God today mould your lives that they may be free from sin. May we realize that God suffers for our sins through Christ. God bears all our sins willingly that He may have the honor

ONE OF THE DEADLY SINS IS THAT OF GAMBLING

Rev. Edwin Weary Condemns the Practice As a Crime Before God and Man.

Rev. Edwin Weary, rector of St. Stephen's Episcopal church, preached to a large and appreciative audience last evening on the subject, "The Sin of Gambling." It was a very interesting theme and the rector was given undivided attention throughout his discourse. He said in part:

"It is asserted that it is not a sin to gamble. I say that it is. Is there a man imbued with a Christian spirit, the love of God, that seeks the companionship of the gambler? I don't think there is. Such are always seen to be seeking the intimacy of those of good standing. Gambling is not sportsmanlike because it spoils the clearness of all legitimate sports; it is not gentlemanly for no true gentleman will gamble. I will not condemn sports by classing gambling among them. Sports, when they test the brawn, skill and strength of true manhood, are legitimate and worthy a place in the pursuits of men; when gambling enters into the sport, whatever it may be, it robs the game of its clearness.

"Gambling forms one of the deadly sins and is placed under the head of covetousness. It is a pursuit found only among the low men for the possessing of the illegitimate dollar. Betting is one of the lusts of the flesh. It is deteriorating to character, not elevating. Betting is illegitimate interest because it is obtaining money under false pretense.

"Gambling is a crime before man and God as is shown by its results. The statistics show that out of the vast army of mortals inclosed in our penitentiaries most of them are embezzlers, and they have committed the crime on account of the obligations caused by gambling. The greater number of suicides are also caused by gambling and the entire category of the criminology will reveal the fact that gambling is the direct or indirect cause of crime in its multitudinous forms."

Sermons on Faith.

At the First Christian church yesterday the pastor, Rev. J. W. Gorrell, preached two extremely interesting and inspiring sermons to his usually large congregations. In the morning he preached on the subject, "Work, the Test of Faith," and in the evening or "The Noblest Men are Nothing When Trust Gives Way to Despair." He spoke of the need man has of implicit trust in the Lord. A really noble man was such because he trusted and when his trust gave way and was exceeded by despair, his character gave way also and he was nothing in comparison with his former self.

far as is apparent to an outsider, complete harmony exists throughout the membership. There is no disagreement between the East and West, and the problem of choosing a successor to President Hughes will be decided regardless of sectional lines. No grave questions that affect the trade are likely to arise that cannot be amicably settled. The pottery workers as a whole are a busy body of men just at present and will doubtless take no steps calculated to disturb the harmonious relations existing between themselves and their employers. East Liverpool, deeply interested in the present convention, hopes most sincerely that good will and the best interests of all concerned, may guide the delegates in their deliberations.

The carpenters and the contractors are to be congratulated, and the public also, upon the settlement of the differences upon which a disagreement has existed for more than a month. Although, owing to the fact that a considerable number of the contractors signed the scale soon after it was presented, there has been no complete tie-up of building operations, the fact that a strike condition existed has seriously retarded many projects of importance. Now that the last vestige of a strike in this important trade has disappeared and that all the other labor disputes are either settled or in a fair way to be adjusted speedily, there is nothing in the way of the present season being one of the busiest ever experienced in the building trades of East Liverpool. The city needs all the new houses that are likely to be built during the coming summer and more besides. Let the good work proceed.

The hospital association is to be congratulated on another donation. It can use many more of the same sort, and in a period of prosperity like the present ought not to be handicapped for lack of funds. It is not to the credit of East Liverpool that neighboring cities with far less wealth and population than our own have finely equipped hospitals, while the unfortunate stranger within our gates, if sick or the victim of an accident, has no place to which he may demand admission, and must look out for himself however enfeebled his condition. The sooner this city can remedy all this the more creditable it will be to its reputation and the more satisfactory to all persons of humane feelings.

Mayor Davidson retires from office a more popular man than when he entered it. This is saying a good deal, considering the duties he has fulfilled and the difficulties he has encountered during the past three years, and considering the fact that he was a very popular man to start with. He has made few enemies and a great many friends while holding the office of mayor, and the good will and good wishes of all whose friendship is worth having follow him upon his retirement to private life.

American farmers are such successful wheat growers that 56 per cent of the crop goes abroad. England alone paid $67,000,000 for American wheat in 1901. The present prospect is that our wheat harvest of 1903 will be a record breaker.

Out in Missouri they are talking of a Dockery presidential boom. Mr. Dockery seems to have many good points, but they say he eats pie with a knife.

Hetty Green says every woman ought to know how to keep house. Almost any woman with Hetty's money would know how to do it.

For Lunch Tonight

Come in and try an Egg Chocolate or a Double Egg Chocolate or an Egg Malted Milk or an Ice Cream Soda (double portion) or a Plain Grape Juice (long drink). You will feel better and work better in the afternoon if you take a light noon lunch. All of the above are extremely easy of digestion and very nutritious. 10c each.

C. G. Anderson,
Druggist, Diamond.

The convention of the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters meets at Wheeling under unusually favorable auspices. Not only is the Brotherhood larger than ever, but so street, aged 72, widow of the late Samuel Ridinger, died at her home this morning at 7 o'clock after an illness of nearly two months. She had, however, been confined to her bed but ten days. Funeral services will be held at the home Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. C. G. Jordan officiating. Interment will be made in Riverview cemetery.

Mrs. Ridinger was a life-long resident of Columbiana county and lived in the house in which she died for 36 years, moving to the city from Wellsville. She was a faithful and consistent member of the First Presbyterian church. Five grandchildren, a sister, Mrs. Nancy Disbrow, and two daughters, Mrs. Rachel B. Loomis, at home, and Mrs. Anna Trenkle, Lincoln avenue, are her survivors.

Mrs. James Parker.

Mrs. James Parker, of Calhoun's addition, 46 years of age, died at her home Saturday afternoon after an illness of over a year's duration. The cause of Mrs. Parker's death was cancer of the stomach. She took very ill about ten days ago and gradually grew worse. She is survived by her husband and six children, Mrs. Alf McKinnon, Margaret, Robert, James, Annie and Ruth, all of whom reside in the East End. The funeral will take place from the family residence on Wednesday. Rev. G. W. Orcutt will officiate at the funeral ceremony and the burial will take place at Wellsville, the former home of Mrs. Parker.

Mrs. Nancy Sloan.

Mrs. Nancy Sloan, mother of Dr. William J. Sloan, died at his home on Fifth street Saturday evening from the infirmities of old age, she being nearly 90 years old. Mrs. Sloan previously resided in Allegheny, making her home with her daughter-in-law. She had been a resident of this city about two years and was highly respected and esteemed by all. Dr. Sloan is the only surviving member of the family, Mrs. Sloan's husband having died several years ago. The remains were taken to Allegheny this morning, where funeral services were held this afternoon. Rev. Mr. Milligan officiating.

Charles Miller.

Charles Miller, aged 35, died at his home in the East End Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, after a two weeks' illness with typhoid pneumonia. The funeral will be conducted at the home tomorrow afternoon by Rev. J. G. Reinartz, pastor of St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church. Burial will follow in Spring Grove cemetery. Mr. Miller was well known in the city as an honest and industrious baker. He was last in the employment of Andrew Gahn. A wife and four small children, together with a mother, sister and brother, survive.

Homer Egges.

Homer, the 8-year-old son of L. S. Egges, of Second street, succumbed to an attack of heart disease at noon today. The boy had been ill since last winter and was thought fairly on the road to recovery, and his death came as a surprise. Funeral arrangements have not as yet been made.

Charles Starkey.

Charles, aged 2 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Starkey, of Avondale street and Bradshaw avenue, died early Sunday morning after a long illness. The father is employed at the C. & P. freight depot. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon.

Don't fool with a cold: no one can tell what the end may be. Pneumonia, catarrh, chronic bronchitis and consumption invariably result from neglected colds. Nothing can be compared with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as a quick cure for colds and influenza, and by its use these diseases may be avoided. For sale by Alvin H. Bulger.

The New Way

The Holland Brush is made of metal, beautifully nickel-plated, the body and teeth of same being hollow, admitting of boiling water, and will dry a lady's hair, after washing in a very few minutes after passing the brush through the hair as you would an ordinary comb or brush, leaving the hair soft and fluffy. In the old way it takes hours to do the same and always with the danger of contracting a cold. It is indispensable where there are children. The Holland Brush will last a life time.

AT THE THEATER

The average theatrical manager of the present is so intent upon devising novelties to please the satiated public that he too often overlooks the opportunities which are furnished by the older sort of dramas and melo-dramas. It is one of the most inspiring signs of the times, however, that the people are gradually abandoning the hackneyed farce comedies and the variety shows without variety for the good old-fashioned plays in which heart interest predominates. Proof of this statement is found in the fact that one of the greatest successes of recent years has been achieved this season by a melodrama in which love is the pervading sentiment. The title of the play is "For Her Sake," and the story deals with life in Russia and Siberia. The Carpenter company, who have the place under their management, have spared no labor or expense upon it and have succeeded in producing a melodrama which is without doubt superior to the average of its kind. "For Her Sake" will be seen at the Grand, Thursday evening, May 7.

"As You Like It" is seldom as you like it. It is generally as you don't like it, can't like it as you couldn't like it if you wanted to; as you have no business to like it if you have no regard for the niceties, the correctness, then the respectabilities of the stage. Ernest Shipman doesn't ask much of our town. He asks you to come and see a Shakespearean play because he guarantees it shall be played. He affirms that for years his star, Miss Alberta Gallatin, has been accepted as an actress who can and will act Rosalind and he has not regretted his actress by surrounding her with anything but people who know their business, and a set of scenes that Shakespeare ordered and that he, Shipman, has bought, paid for, and carries. Wednesday evening, May 6, at the Grand.

"My Friend From India." The St. Louis Globe says: "My Friend From India," which was presented at the Metropolitan last night, is the funniest conceit witnessed upon the local stage. To enumerate the succession of ludicrous situations would not begin to do justice to the farce and its author, H. A. DuSouchet. The amusing complexities and predicaments are unexpected, and, in consequence, all the more effective, as anticipation does not dull the enjoyment of the actual scene. This merry farce will be presented here on next Tuesday evening, May 5.

"The Sign of the Cross," with all the original company, scenery, costumes and properties, will be welcome news for all those that have seen this great religious drama or those that only have heard of its great reputation. Over forty actors and two car loads of scenery are carried with the company.

CARPENTERS' DISPUTE

There are over 100 team owners in the city and the task which confronted the officers when the movement began was not an easy one. To the present every owner of a team in the city has been seen and all but eight of them have signed the agreement to pay the $2 per day and grant nine hours. Four of the eight still remaining out are coal men, and are not making a fight against the demands of the drivers. It is thought the entire matter will have been closed up by the end of the week.

No change has been noted in the situation of the painters in their strike for an eight-hour day and an advance in wages. The master painters have agreed to compromise on a basis of eight hours at the old rate of wages and state they will not yield another point under any circumstances. On the other hand the journeymen are just as firm in their determination to stand out for their original demands, and will accept no compromise. The workmen are all employed at present, but the bosses think when the work now on hand has

It is possible the plumbers' strike may be settled this afternoon between the two parties to the controversy, and if the journeymen can see their way clear to make a small concession, the strike can be settled at once.

The union had asked for an eight-hour day and seven hours on Saturday, the wages to remain the same as heretofore—$1 per day. The master plumbers asked that the wages be fixed at $1.50 per day for a 48-hour week. No progress has been made toward a settlement, as the journeymen plumbers would not entertain the proposition made by their employers. It is said the bosses have a new suggestion to offer at the meeting this afternoon, and it may be that the men will accept.

NEW CITY GOVERNMENT

Enters Upon Its Duties Today—The Auditorship Important.

The city government starts today under the new municipal code and Charles R. McGregor, Jr., auditor-elect, takes his office in Wellsville. This office is one of the most important on the list and the city is considered fortunate in securing so competent and capable a man for the place. The business of this position is to look after the city's accounts and no bill, however small, can be paid until it has passed his close inspection.

This additional office will take considerable time and trouble from the councilmen, as heretofore all bills were approved by council. A new check system will be in vogue under the new arrangement and every department of the city will be separate. This will enable him to tell without a search the correct condition of all funds.

Mr. McGregor was in Cleveland some time ago to receive instructions relative to his duties and is now ready to enter the work with a clear understanding of all points connected with his position.

No arrangements have yet been made for an office and he will still continue in his old office at Fourth and Main streets, where he has had his law office.

MEETS TO ORGANIZE

First Session of New City Council of Wellsville Tonight.

The new Wellsville council will hold its first meeting this evening. Under the new code the council is composed of eight members instead of 10. The new members are: A. B. Crubshaw, president; William A. O'Grady, Frank C. Blackburn, D. E. McDonald, Robert Anderson, C. V. Shoub, James Bissett and J. A. Joseph.

The chief business of this session will be reorganization and an explanation of the duties of the council under the code. Should these things not take up too much time some other important questions, which were left unsettled by the old members, will, no doubt, receive some discussion.

The improvements and finance committees will not be necessary in the new council, as the board of public service takes the place of the improvement committee and the auditor will, in a measure, fill the finance committee's place. Some of the business which has been so long neglected by the old board will be the first things accomplished, especially the removal of the water works office to enable the postoffice room to be enlarged and free mail delivery established without delay.

Water Works Superintendent.

The board of public service after taking the oath of office this morning held a meeting and appointed the following officials: C. E. Ewing, superintendent of water works, salary $1,000, bond $500; H. W. Sinclair, clerk, salary $60 per month; J. G. Stewart, cemetery sexton, salary $50 per month; Alexander Culp, supervisor of highways, salary $2 per day.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM SUDDEN DEATH

Mrs. Molly Shay And Son Thrown from a Buggy in a Runaway.

Mrs. Mollie Shay and son Walter, 17 years of age, of Fairview, had a miraculous escape from death at 10 o'clock this morning. They were on their way to East Liverpool and at a point near the Locust Hill cemetery, on the Fairview road, the horse, a spirited one, becoming frightened at a loose strap which kept striking him about the legs, started off at a rapid gait. The road is very steep and the horse was unmanageable.

Mrs. Shay and her son were thrown out, their rig colliding with that of a party on the way to the funeral of Mrs. John P. Miller at Gas Valley. Mrs. Shay was badly bruised, but the boy was unhurt.

PARSONAGE BOUGHT

Chester U. P. Church Makes Valuable Addition To Its Property.

A deal was closed Saturday evening by the trustees of the U. P. church, which will enhance the value of the church of that denomination by the purchase of the property of Joseph R. Hough on Carolina avenue. The purchase price of the property is $3,951 and it will be used as a parsonage. This will give the church a very desirable frontage of 168 feet on the avenue.

TROUBLE AT A BALL GAME

Resulted in the Arrest of Umpire and One Spectator.

But for the presence of Chief Allison at the game of ball between teams of Crookery City and Chester Saturday afternoon a general melee would have resulted. The game was hotly contested, the services of six different umpires was found necessary before the game was through with, which resulted in a score of 18 to 12 in favor of the Chester team. Toward the close of the game the pitcher of the Chester team, Harvey Cullen, took exception to a decision of "Noodles" Rusby, the umpire, and stated his intention of quitting the game. "Noodles" did not like the idea of his rulings being questioned and walked toward Cullen and struck him a terrific blow in the face. Alvin, an older brother of Cullen, resented the striking of his brother by a much larger man and knocked Rusby down.

Chief Allison then took a hand in the affray and placed the elder Cullen and Rusby under arrest after separating them and conducted them before Squire Johnston, who fined Cullen $5.00 and Rusby $9.00 for their fun.

Rusby for the use of profane language narrowly escaped a jail sentence and received a scolding from the justice, but was released by the payment of his fine by his friends.

RELIEVED OF $45

William Nelson Lost a Large Roll While Sleeping Out Of Doors.

William Nelson was relieved of about $45 while he peacefully slumbered on the platform in front of a store on Carolina avenue near the park Saturday night, about 11 o'clock. Nelson had considerable money early in the evening, and got separated from it, returning to Chester shortly before the rest was taken from him. A number of his friends tried to get his watch and money from him for safe keeping, with only partial success.

Nelson turned over his gold watch to Richard Banfield, who also wanted to care for his money, but Nelson would not give it up. Little time elapsed ere Nelson and his pay envelope was transferred to hands more appreciative.

CHESTER NOTES.

Edward Stewart was in Chester from New Cumberland on Saturday.

Miss Ruth Baxter, teacher of the Chester schools, spent Sunday with friends at Fairview.

C. T. McCutcheon has just installed a fine new cash register in his drug store on Virginia avenue.

Miss Jane Stewart was compelled to leave her work as teacher in the Chester schools on account of an attack of tonsillitis. She is quite ill.

It is said the deal for coal land near New Cumberland will be closed by F. E. McElfresh within the next few weeks. The land embraces between 2,000 and 3,000 acres, and the price to be paid is something like $600,000.

Nature hid one of her greatest blessings in the liver of a fish, but practically prohibited its use by the nauseating grease and fishy flavor. Science has now extracted this good without the grease, and presented it to suffering humanity in the form of Hage's Cordial of Cod Liver Oil.

MOTHER'S JEWELS

The Society Agreeably Entertained at the Home of E. W. Fowler.

The children of the Mother's Jewel society of the First M. E. church spent an afternoon and evening of unusual pleasure on Saturday from 2 to 7 o'clock at the home of Mrs. E. W. Fowler on Fifth and Jackson streets. The early part of the afternoon was spent in games and at 6 o'clock on the spacious lawn of the Fowler home was served a luncheon which the children greatly enjoyed.

Following the luncheon a brief but excellent musical program was given by the children as follows: Song, "America," by the society; song, "The Daisy and the Raindrops," Geraldine Hilt; recitation, "My Son John," David Pratt; piano solo, Miss Agnes Jones; solo, Mildred Weaver; boys' trio; solo, Isabel Pratt; piano solo, Miss Agnes Jones.

The little children belonging to this society are greatly enjoying the meetings which take place at the home of Mrs. Fowler on stated days. The officers of the society who assisted Mrs. Fowler in entertaining were: President, Edith Cripps; vice president, Helen Viney; secretary, Isabel Pratt; treasurer, Mrs. E. W. Fowler; pianist, Edith Cripps.

New Century Club.

A meeting of the new Century club will take place next Saturday, May 9, at the home of Miss Newell. The program will be on interesting literary subjects. "American Social Reforms and Reformers" will be the theme of a paper read by Mrs. Laughlin. Miss Hazlett has taken the subject, "God in the Affairs of Nations." Current events will be discussed by Mrs. Holway, and the afternoon will be made a profitable literary one.

HARRY M'FARLAND

NOW RECOVERING

VICTIM OF PRACTICAL JOKE HAS HAD SERIOUS TIME.

Police Vigilance Will Be Exercised to Prevent Barbarity in Future.

Harry McFarland, the victim of the practical joke played upon him while he was sleeping in a Second street saloon the first of last week, is reported better. The terrible burns are healing a little and it is thought by continued careful treatment that he will eventually recover. The cause for the greatest fear as to his injuries arose from the fact of financial embarrassment, he having no money, which to secure proper treatment was a most essential feature. After the exclusive publication in the News Review of the cowardly and despicable act, the perpetrators becoming alarmed because of their exposure, immediately hunted the injured man up and promised to stand all expenses and repay him in various other ways if he would not prosecute. Though he is doing nicely now, he still suffers excruciating pain and is in abject misery at times. He is very joyful over the outlook for recovery.

It is learned, since the story of this one heathenish act leaked out, that there are few men that lounge around several resorts on Smoky Row that are free from scars and awful burns as the result of former brutal practices. The practice has been in vogue for a year and while McFarland is the only one that has been hurt sufficiently to give cause for alarm, others have been terribly injured.

The police have determined to put a stop to the so-called fun-making and arrest every man found implicated in playing such jokes in the future. The penalty for the offense is imprisonment in the penitentiary and the guilty parties will get the full extent of the law.

ELABORATE PROGRAM

Prepared for the Social to Be Held By the Clerks Tomorrow Evening.

Grocery and butcher clerks' union No. 292 of this city has arranged for a social session to be held at its hall over the postoffice tomorrow evening. An elaborate program has been prepared, which includes a number of addresses by members and their friends. One of the most pleasing numbers on the program will be an address by Elijah W. Hill, who assisted in the work of organizing the union in this city several years ago.

The local is now in a prosperous condition, having a very large membership and an agreement with the merchants which makes the conditions of work and hours the best in this section of the state. It is likely the meeting Tuesday night will have the effect of interesting a large number of clerks who are eligible to membership, but who have not affiliated with it.

We sell the celebrated "Oacita" union underwear, fits like a glove. Price $1 and $1.50 a suit.

POTTERS' CONVENTION

to do. All the delegates were properly qualified, as there were no contests or irregularities to pass upon.

President Hughes appointed these committees:

Credentials committee—E. L. Hatton, R. H. Smith, John Kidd, James Marriott, Aaron Coleman and W. J. McKeone.

The credentials committee met in executive session immediately after the speech of President Hughes in reply to Mayor Sweeney and reported this afternoon.

The session this afternoon was largely taken up by the reports of the national officers and practically nothing else will be considered today.

The members of the executive board, who preceded the delegates to the convention city, had very little to do. The questions brought to its attention were of minor importance and these were disposed of in a very short time. The board will make no recommendations to the convention.

The auditing committee soon completed its labors, as the books of every national officer had been kept in such a way as to make this work a very simple matter. The books of every officer were in shipshape order.

Perhaps 50 delegates reached the city yesterday. The Trenton delegation was one of the first to arrive and is quartered at the Brunswick. Most of the early arrivals from East Liverpool are stopping at the Grand Central.

Patrick Duffy and Len Martin, representing the Camden local, and Joseph D. Bradley, Charles W. Hulton, James Marriott, Patrick F. Culbertson, Daniel O'Connor, Thomas Walkett, George Dix, W. H. Wootton, George Martin, of the Trenton locals, held an informal reception yesterday afternoon at the Brunswick. Misses Miller and Banch, representing Ford City, are also at this hostelry.

First Vice President Hutchins, Charles Fulton and James Brathwaite are at the Grand Central. Major Adams, Shelton Moore, R. A. Webber and Thomas Doherty, of East Liverpool, are all at this hostelry.

Mr. Hutchins is a conspicuous figure among the delegates. He is popular and congenial, and yesterday spent most of the time renewing old acquaintances. Under no circumstances will he be a candidate, either for president or secretary. A reporter yesterday afternoon put the question to him point blank.

"I couldn't think of becoming a candidate for president," he said. "Any report that I am a candidate did not come from me," he continued. "If the delegates persisted and selected me I

QUICK RESULTS.

A lost watch, which had been advertised in another paper, was restored to the owner Saturday evening within an hour after the owner had advertised the loss in the News Review. It pays always to advertise in the paper that the people read.

would decline to accept. It would mean that I leave Trenton for East Liverpool, which would require more sacrifices than I can make."

"Are you a candidate for secretary?" the reporter asked.

"I've never given it a thought," he replied, "because the same obstacles would be encountered. My mother is growing old and she has requested that I stay in Trenton with her. This request I cannot disregard."

"Will you accept the first vice presidency?" was asked.

This declaration from Mr. Hutchins leaves but one candidate in the field against Secretary Duffy, Harry Hailes, of Wheeling. There is some sentiment among the Wheeling delegates for Mr. Hailes, but underlying it there is a desire that Mr. Duffy be Hughes' successor. Mr. Hailes is not making any campaign and Mr. Duffy is maintaining a dignified silence. Some of the delegates say it is doubtful whether Mr. Duffy will stand for the presidency, but the majority believe he will accept if called upon. He certainly has the call for the honor and it is up to him to accept or decline.

The question as to who will succeed Mr. Duffy as secretary is much more complex. National Treasurer Woods is a candidate and he has at least two opponents from East Liverpool, P. J. McKeone and Frank Gratton. So far no candidates outside of East Liverpool, have been announced. It was stated yesterday that the kilnmen will give Mr. Woods, who is from this branch of the trade, their warmest support. The kilnmen are represented among the national officers solely by Mr. Woods and his position is not one of great emolument.

Messrs. Gratton and McKeone have strong supporters, and as both are well qualified, the contest may prove very interesting.

The question of a uniform scale, which will include the eastern arm of the organization, will be one of the most important with which the convention has to deal. The eastern general war pressers, dippers and perhaps one other branch of the trade, have endorsed the uniform scale now in force in the western plants, but the kilnmen and jigmen are not satisfied with it. The kilnmen have instructed their delegates to insist upon a revision of the scale, giving this entire branch an increase. This resolution will not cause a great deal of trouble, but an acceptable solution for the jigmen promises to be of great difficulty. It was authoritatively stated yesterday that the jigmen were opposed to the present uniform list for the east. The western jigmen will ask for increases and this may make it more acceptable. As yet no solution has been advanced.

The delegates will go the guests tomorrow evening of the Wheeling locals at the Grand opera house, where a first-class specialty company is the attraction. Thursday night they will be banqueted at the Pythian Castle, which event will be preceded by a trolley ride over the Wheeling Traction company's lines. Many other informal entertainments will be enjoyed.

Secretary T. J. Duffy, who, if he says the word will no doubt be President Hughes' successor, is a guest at the McClure.

President Hughes is the guest of his mother in the East End.

Major Adams, the veteran dipper, is a prominent figure among the delegates.

George Logan, of Findlay, is the delegate from the newest local in the Brotherhood, No. 67. He is a veteran presser and has been employed in Bell's plant for 14 years.

All the early arrivals were over at Bridgeport this morning to meet the big delegation from East Liverpool.

E. N. Croxall, delegate from No. 4, East Liverpool, left for that city this afternoon, to be sworn in as councilman at large, and will return at once to participate in the convention.

POTTERS' CONVENTION GETS DOWN TO WORK

The National Brotherhood Assembles at Wheeling Stronger and More Harmonious Than Ever.

GROWTH OVER 1,000 DURING THE PAST YEAR

BY O. H. BOOTON.
Staff Correspondent.
Wheeling, May 4.—National President A. S. Hughes, at 10:30 o'clock this morning, wielded his gavel, calling together the thirteenth annual convention of the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters. The convention is remarkable in many ways.
Never before has the organization been so prosperous and powerful. Hundreds of members have been enrolled since the convention held in Trenton last year, and the representation has been increased by 50 delegates. The exact strength of the Brotherhood cannot be determined from the number of delegates, as some of the locals organized in the past few months are entitled to but one representative.
The report of President Hughes, which was presented to the convention this afternoon, showed an increase of more than 1,000 members since last year's convention. The organization has been equally prosperous financially.
One prominent member said yesterday that if he had all the money that had passed through the national treasury during the year he could build and equip a large modern pottery.
Reports from all the national officers were presented today. That of President Hughes was a complete resume of the work of the year and the growth and prosperity thus shown was most satisfactory. The principal cause for congratulation was the return to the organization of the Trenton jiggermen, and there is general rejoicing over their return to the fold, even if it has given the Brotherhood one of the most perplexing questions to be solved in the convention.

The report of First Vice President Hutchins covered every detail of the reorganization of the jiggermen, and was one of the most interesting parts of the day's proceedings.
The actual work of the convention was scarcely touched upon today. When President Hughes called the delegates to order in the Carroll club's auditorium Harry Hailles, of this city, introduced Andrew Jackson Sweeney, Wheeling's popular mayor. Mr. Sweeney made a short address, notable more for its sincerity than its eloquence. He congratulated the potters upon their thorough organization, the intelligence of the delegates and assured them of the freedom of the city. Wheeling is certainly doing herself proud in caring for the members of the convention.
President Hughes, who does things rather than says them, followed with a neat little address, thanking the chief executive for the hospitality extended and the great interest manifested on all sides in the convention. He announced the members of the credentials committee and the convention then recessed until after dinner. The credentials committee had very little

Morley Continues as Chief of Fire Department, Both Appointments Being Temporary—Other New Officials Take Oath of Office.

W. A. Weaver is now mayor and John Wyman chief of police. Mr. Weaver took the oath of office and was thereby sworn in as mayor of the city at 10 minutes before 9 o'clock this morning by the retiring executive, William C. Davidson. The scene was an imposing one and was enacted in the presence of City Auditor Willis Davidson, Sanitary Policeman Burgess, Officer Clifford Dawson and ex-Chief of Police Thomas V. Thompson.
At the conclusion of the brief ceremony Mayor Weaver was given a hearty handshake by all present and during the day he has been busy accepting congratulations.
Shortly after Mayor Weaver took his seat ex-mayor Davidson bade farewell to the city hall and expressed as his only regret that he did not like to leave the pleasant associates that have been with him around the city hall during his administration.
"They are all good fellows, and from that standpoint I never spent a happier period in my life," said he. "Nevertheless I am truly thankful that my time is up, and my sympathy will ever go out for the men who hold the position."
Before leaving, however, Mr. Davidson spent some time in lending Mayor

Davidson information incident to the books, office and gave him the assurance that he would do all in within his power to assist him in an understanding of the duties and the manner in which numerous questions are disposed of. Mayor Weaver in return thanked him for his courtesy and will listen kindly to any suggestions offered.
It did not take Mayor Weaver long to get down to business, and though he had no offenders to deal with he was soon called upon to discharge one of his official duties—that of administering the oath of office to the newly-elected officials.
The first to stand the ordeal was Jack Shenkel, of the board of public service. He was sworn in at 9:25 o'clock. Following in a very short time, City Auditor George E. Davidson, City Auditor Willis Davidson, City Treasurer Chris Horton and Councilman H. E. Moon took the oath.
By this time the city hall was thronged with interesting citizens and many were the conjectures as to the several appointments to be made by the mayor. And while all were whispering their thoughts John Wyman, whom the News Review predicted would get the appointment as chief of police, stepped into their midst, tarried a few moments among them, heard their varied guesses and then made his way into the office of Mayor Weaver, handed him an unimpeachable bond and stood waiting the orders of the chief executive. He was not kept long in suspense.

Mayor Weaver said: "Inasmuch as it becomes my duty to prevent the city from being without a chief of police until one is formally appointed by me, I will now appoint you, Mr. Wyman, temporary chief."
This ceremony was also followed by hearty handshaking, as was the one immediately after when Clinton Morley was sworn in as temporary chief of the fire department. The temporary appointing means without doubt that both Mr. Wyman and Mr. Morley will be permanently appointed as soon as sanctioned by council, and it is thought that both will receive the undivided support of every member of council at the first meeting to be held tonight.
It is thought by tonight every member of the municipal government required to be sworn in will have taken the oath of office, that with the exception of the board of public safety, which Mayor Weaver states will not be appointed until after a conference with the new council.

CARPENTERS' DISPUTE IS FINALLY ADJUSTED

Men Returned to Work This Morning—Will Start the Eight Hour Day at 8 O'Clock in the Morning.

The carpenters' strike is settled. The action was taken at the conference held Saturday night between the bosses and a committee representing the union. The strike has been on since April 1. John Stewart, John D. Wiley, A. D. Cope and George B. M. Beatty were present in behalf of the union, and D. F. Nellis, Harvey McHenry, Robert Stevenson and Claude Nouse acted for the contractors.
The meeting was a most harmonious one and the session was brief. The point which has kept the two sides apart was so trivial that both appreciated the wisdom of amicably moving for settlement. The men had insisted upon an eight-hour day to begin at 7 o'clock in the morning, with seven hours on Saturday. The contractors objected to 7 o'clock as a starting point and wanted the hour fixed at 8 o'clock. They were also loath to grant the seven-hour day for Saturday. The settlement was effected by the men waiving the point as to the time for beginning work, fixing it at 8 o'clock and they will take but 59 minutes at noon in order that they may secure the short day on Saturday. In consideration of these concessions from the men the contractors gave up the point with reference to the completion of all old contracts at the old rate and conditions.
The carpenters' union had held a meeting previous to the conference and at that time the strike committee made its report covering the points

just outlined. It was stated that the contractors would settle on that basis, and after some little discussion the committee was authorized to accept the terms proposed.
All the interested parties and the public in general are highly gratified at the prospects for an immediate resumption of work by the carpenters, who have been idle for more than a month.
The committee that represented the journeymen's union in the conference with the contractors today gave out the following statement:
"The carpenters and contractors have adjusted their grievances on a satisfactory basis, and harmony prevails everywhere. All work will soon assume the former activity that has marked our progress for the past few years. It is understood that all carpenters can return to their former positions."
The teamsters' union is making remarkable headway in its canvass for signatures to the new scale of wages. Unlike any of the other trades who have had trouble this spring, it was necessary for the teamsters to see every team owner in the city individually in order to secure his signature. The boss team teamsters have no combination, and could not be reached through that method. In a sense this was an advantage to the men, since they could present their case through a committee without the necessity of

Mayors May Still Appoint City Boards of Equalization.

From a Staff Correspondent.
Columbus May 4.—The discovery has been made that the law providing for city equalization boards was not repealed by the code and that mayors may still appoint these boards when a request is not made by the county auditors for boards of review to the state board of assessors and appraisers. Several weeks ago Auditor of State Guilbert sent out a circular letter to county auditors advising them that it was their duty under the Longworth law to make application to the state board of assessors and appraisers for boards of review to take the place of city equalization boards, the letter indicating that the law providing for equalization boards had been repealed. Mr. Guilbert finds that he was mistaken, and that the law still stands.
Last winter Special Counsel Smith W. Bennett rendered an opinion which the state board of assessors and appraisers construed to mean that revaluations in cities could be equalized save by boards of review. Assuming this to be the case the board arranged to appoint boards for the 71 cities of the state. Bennett declares he never issued such an opinion, and both he and Attorney General Sheets admit that the equalization law has not been repealed, but hold it is unconstitutional.
The state board has decided not to take up the matter of appointing boards of review until furnished with a legal opinion concerning the status of the matter. Attorney General Sheets is now working on an opinion which will define their duty. The courts have held the Longworth board of review act to be valid. Governor Nash says that it was not the intention of the framers of the code to change the equalization law.
In an opinion rendered to Auditor of State Guilbert, General Sheets takes a very advanced stand on the Dow law, and, in case his view of the statute is upheld by the courts, there will be a sudden falling off in the sale of many so-called "temperance drinks."

Some time ago the auditor of state notified the county auditors not to place persons selling "Bishop's beer," "Beal beer" and other liquors said to contain more than 2 per cent of alcohol, on the Dow tax lists.
Since this order was issued there has been a great increase in the number of places selling these drinks, and a falling off in the Dow tax.
The matter of the taxability of the traffic in these liquors was referred to the attorney general, and he now holds that the sale of all malt liquors, whether intoxicating or not, renders the seller liable for the payment of the Dow tax.
Heretofore it has been held that malt liquors to be taxable must contain at least 2 per cent of alcohol, but the attorney general decides, from the language of the section of the law, that it was the intention of the legislature to tax the sale of all malt liquors.

ENGINE DERAILED BY A SIDEWIDE

A Railroad Accident Yesterday Which It Took Much Time to Remedy.

The Conway drag sidewiped a freight train in the local yards yesterday morning, and the engine of the former train was overturned.
Both trains had been on the siding to allow the passenger train due here at 10:05 to pass, and upon its departure both started for the main tracks at once. The firemen and engineers of both trains escaped injury by jumping. Neither of the trains was going at a rapid rate of speed, and it was difficult to understand how they could have come together with sufficient force to upset the engine.
The wreck train was summoned from Wellsville and the entire day was consumed in clearing away the wreckage.
Aged Man Insane.
Lisbon, May 4.—(Special.)—Harry Hestock, of Center township, aged 72, was adjudged insane in probate court Saturday afternoon and application made for admission to Massillon asylum. He has been living with Joseph Hill, a relative, a few miles from Lisbon. His hallucination made him dangerous.

THE NEW CHIEF'S DECLARATION

While in conversation with a News Reporter this afternoon Chief of Police John Wyman made a declaration that will meet with the hearty approval of every fair-minded resident of the city. He said:

"Everything that is done by me, or under my direction, will be for the best interests of the city. I intend to instruct my police officers to enforce every law as written in the ordinance book. Some people, I expect, will object, but that is not my lookout. It is a matter of business in carrying out the duties of a chief of police, and it will be on business principles that I will work. If exceptions are taken to the ordinances the grievances must be related to others than me. I am simply here to enforce them and I most assuredly will do so."

"I have not at the present time any changes in contemplation for the members of the force. There are some very good men among them and I anticipate no removals, at least for the present. It will be several days before everything is down in working order, but I think the police will readily understand exactly what I want and will do my bidding. I intend to have each officer live up to the rules that have been written governing them. They must report on the minute and after signing the report book, they must get out and patrol their beats. The city hall will not be a loafing place for them. They are employed to work 12 hours and must do so. I expect there will be some change in the beats, but for the present they will remain the same."

Court Orders.

Lisbon, May 4.—(Special.)—Leave has been given the defendant to answer by May 29 in the case of J. C. Longshore against the W. J. Clark company, of Salem. The case of Harry Hughes against Charles W. Powell has been dismissed at plaintiff's cost without prejudice to a new action.

A HIGH HONOR FOR NEW MAYOR

Prohibitionists Propose W. A. Weaver As Governorial Candidate.

From a Staff Correspondent.
Columbus May 4.—A gubernatorial boom has been started for W. A. Weaver, East Liverpool's new prohibition mayor. At a meeting of Prohibitionists at Martin's Ferry, W. W. Scott, of Bridgeport, a lumber dealer and leading worker of the Prohibition party, proposed Weaver for governor and the suggestion seemed to meet with general favor. It is urged that because of his being the only prohibition mayor in the state Mr. Weaver is the logical candidate for governor.
State Chairman F. N. McCartney attended the Martin's Ferry conference which was a meeting of the committee of Belmont county and is of the opinion that Mr. Weaver's candidacy will receive general approval among the prohibitionists of Ohio. Two other candidates are announced for governor, Rev. N. D. Creamer, of Columbus, and Rev. H. F. McLane, of Toledo. The former is a Methodist and the latter a Disciple minister.
Mr. Weaver has not defined his position to the leaders and they do not know whether he can be persuaded to accept the honor should it be tendered him.
Chairman McCartney has received notice from Secretary C. F. Bough, of the Columbiana county Prohibition committee, that the committee will meet in East Liverpool next Monday to select delegates to the state convention and decide whether or not to nominate a county ticket. McCartney will be present. He thinks the committee will put a ticket in the field. Scott, the Belmont county man who proposed Weaver for governor, may be a candidate for state treasurer, and E. M. Long, of Cadiz, is talked of as a candidate for auditor of state. These are the only prohibitionists announced so far from eastern Ohio.

LIKELY TO DIE AS RESULT OF FALL

BARNEY MULRINE SUSTAINED BAD INTERNAL INJURIES.

Physicians Fear He May Not Survive Through the Coming Night.

As the result of an accident occurring on last Wednesday night, Barney Mulrine, a saloonist of West Market street, is momentarily expected to die. All of last night and the greater portion of today physicians were at his bedside, and it is feared that he will not survive the night.

Mr. Mulrine was descending the stairs at his home when he tripped and fell headlong to the floor below, sustaining internal injuries that have caused him much pain. He seems to be suffering from injuries over his entire body.

Old Time Offender's Appeared Before His Honor Sunday Evening.

Charged with being drunk and disorderly, three of the Woolley family of the shantytown district were taken before Mayor W. C. Davidson last evening at about 9 o'clock. It was the last tribunal over which the retiring mayor officiated and one that brought fresh to his memory the characters of the wildest district of the city. Several weeks had elapsed since one of the shantytown people had been before him and he was believing that they had turned him down and were not going to give him a farewell visit.
Officers McDermott and Mahoney placed Joe Woolley and his two sons, Ralph and Frank, under arrest late in the afternoon while they were creating more disturbance on the beach that has been witnessed in many months. The trio were pretty drunk and were fighting among themselves and making life generally miserable for every one in hearing distance. The officers were summoned and had considerable difficulty in rounding up the bunch. Mahoney was the first on the scene and when Officer McDermott arrived he was on a box car trying to locate his family.
McDermott got Ralph while he was running up the railroad track at a 2:40 gait and when he put him under arrest Joe interfered and said: "You can't take him unless you take me." He was accommodated, and Frank, making a similar objection, was also corralled. Ralph was fined $1.00 and Joe and Frank got off with $5.00 each.

"Zip" Farmer was released on Saturday night and he was very profuse in his thanks for the manner in which he had always been treated by Mayor Davidson. Another man was arrested Sunday morning. He paid his fine and when Mayor Weaver appeared at the city hall this morning there were only vacant cells awaiting him.

FOUND HIM CHASING HIS WIFE AROUND

A Columbiana Man on the Rampage Arrested, Jailed and Heavily Fined.

Lisbon, May 4.—(Special.)—J. O. Johnson, the Columbiana man who attempted suicide at New Waterford some time ago, was on a rampage in Columbiana last Friday, for which he was fined $50 and costs by Mayor Rekenberger, Saturday. Johnson was drinking Friday and that night is said to have threatened violence to his wife.

Marshal Haag and Officer Fisher were summoned, found the house locked, and Johnson engaged in the pastime of chasing his wife about the house. The officers broke in the door, and a struggle ensued in which Officer Fisher felled the desperate man with a mace. It required several men to take Johnson to jail. There he renewed the fight, assaulting Fisher and nearly overpowering him.

As this was not Johnson's first offense, Mayor Fenkenberger warned him that another appearance in police court would mean a workhouse sentence.

INSPECTION OF STREETS

Board of Public Service Will Take It Up At Its First Meeting.

Jacob Shenkel, member of the board of public service, stated this morning that a meeting of the board will likely be held this evening and that about the first business to be taken up by the board will be a thorough inspection of every street, alley and avenue in the city. He said that Pennsylvania avenue would be attended to at once and any other thoroughfares that are badly in need of improvement.

The Number of Candidates, Like the Number of Ballots, Keeps Increasing.

The number of votes recorded in the News Review prize contest on Saturday was quite up to the average. Many are already beginning to send in the new series of coupons, which is an example worthy of being followed by all. The contest, interesting from the start, will grow more so from this time on.
In order to economize space the News Review has decided hereafter to omit from the published list of candidates all persons who have received less than 100 votes. A careful record will be kept of all votes cast, and as soon as any person's total reaches 100 the fact and the name will be announced. Any person interested desiring information about the scattering vote can obtain it from the record kept at this office.
The following candidates have up to date received 100 votes or more:
The vote stands as follows:
Thomas Neal, Riverside Park...18,319
Thomas Lownds, Fourth street...11,983

IN THE CLAY PLANTS

PEORIA NOTES.

Peoria, May 2.—There is little change in the condition of trade at the Peoria plant. All departments are being operated a part of the time, but the clay hands are still loafing a few days a pay.

Local union No. 27 held a very interesting meeting Tuesday evening. The delegates to the Wheeling convention were not instructed in the matter of who they were to support for national president, and the choice of the delegation will be left to the discretion of the individual members. T. J. Duffy is the favorite, and will doubtless receive the undivided support of the men from Peoria. Of the several candidates for national secretary so far mentioned in the News Review, P. J. McKeone is most favored. The members of local union No. 27 remember when Mr. McKeone was secretary in the early days of the Brotherhood, and they cannot forget his devotion to the cause and the sacrifices made by him both in the matter of time and money when the organization was not in a position to pay out money. At that time there was practically no money in the office and Mr. McKeone was compelled to attend to the duties of the position and work at his trade at the same time in order to make a living. In the light of these facts our delegates believe he should be honored with the office now that the position pays a salary sufficient to justify a man in devoting his entire time to it.

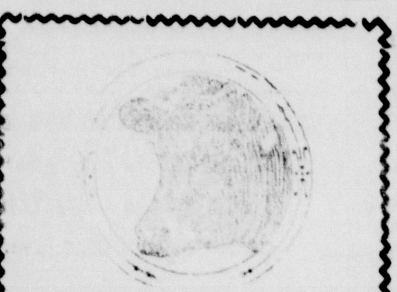

Our Celestos left here on Saturday night and expected to reach Wheeling on Sunday evening. They will pay

A FLESH FORMING FOOD

When you buy a package of Mi-na the great flesh-forming food and dyspepsia cure, weigh yourself and see how much you gain in the first week's use.

Druggist Will Reed will tell you of many of his customers who a month or so ago were thin, pale, haggard and dyspeptic, but who are now, through the use of Mi-na, plump, strong and happy, with perfect health and good digestion. He has seen so many instances of the wonderful power of Mi-na to restore the sick to health that he gives his personal guarantee with every package of Mi-na he sells to refund the money if the remedy does not prove satisfactory.

Mi-na is a purely vegetable preparation that can be used with absolute confidence by the most delicate. It gives remarkable results with children who are weak, run down and without appetite. It builds up the thin, pale, puny girl and woman to perfect plumpness and health. It is the only flesh-forming food of its kind, and in addition it strengthens the digestive organs, aids the food to digest, and makes complete and permanent cures of the worst cases of dyspepsia.

ANNIVERSARIES

Two Clergymen at the County Seat Who Have Had Long Pastorates.

Lisbon, May 4.—(Special)—Rev. J. P. Anderson yesterday began his eleventh year as pastor of the Presbyterian church here. Incidentally he called attention to the fact that this is the centennial year of the local church, a congregation having been organized here almost simultaneously with the settlement of New Lisbon in 1803. The pulpit was supplied with ministers from Pittsburgh until 1807, when Rev. Vallandigham took charge. Rev. George Fowler observed the fifth anniversary of his pastorate of the Christian church here yesterday morning. Twenty members have died since he assumed charge.

NEW SOCIAL CLUB

Has Been Organized And Will Occupy the Rooms of the Old Sirius Club.

A new social club has been organized in the city, the membership of which is made up of young men from East Liverpool's smartest society set. The organization will be known as "The Holland Club," and will be chartered under the state law. Officers were elected yesterday as follows: President, Frank Lowe; vice president, Clyde Huss; secretary, A. G. Hynes; financial secretary, Ralph Shive; treasurer, Gaylor Albright; trustees, Chris Metz, James Stanley and George Rigby.

The new society starts off with a membership of nearly 25, and the rooms of the old Sirius club have been rented and will be elaborately furnished at once. A committee has been appointed to arrange for a reception and banquet to be held some time the latter part of the month.

NEW RAILROAD
MAY NOT COME

Jones & Laughlin Line Projected to the Lakes Is Likely to Be Abandoned.

With the Coal Trust Whereby the Big Steel Firm Will Turn Over Its Business to the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie.

Cleveland, May 4.—Jones & Laughlin, the big steel company of Pittsburgh, have abandoned their intention to build a railroad to Lake Erie. This rumor is around in high financial circles.

The Pittsburgh Coal company has abandoned its intention of building south of Youngstown and it is said that arrangements will be made with the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie railroad for the Pittsburgh entrance.

These two rumors, which are well founded, stirred up railroad circles very much. The Jones & Laughlin line was expected to become one of the powerful factors in the situation and was to have been rushed through. The port has been purchased at Mentor Marsh, the lake terminal; the right of way had been obtained through to Pittsburgh, and the Cleveland terminals had been arranged for. This big independent steel concern wanted to be on a parity with the other steel makers and own its means of transporting the raw material and was going to build a railroad. The route surveyed was impossible. It would cross four summits, each of which had a grade approaching the summit of two per cent. This is the maximum for steam railroads, and on such a grade material cannot be carried cheaply. The other carriers would be using the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie and the French lines alongside of the Jones & Laughlin line, with a maximum grade of three-tenths of 1 per cent. The steel company decided to abandon its project and it is understood will make other arrangements. The cost of carrying the material was too great.

The Pittsburgh Coal company is getting around its project in another way. That company did not want to be engaged to carry out its project of building a railroad if the end could be obtained in some other way. What the coal trust wanted was terms, and it matter little how they came. It seems that the coal company owns the West Side Belt line at Pittsburgh, a very important piece of railroad. It has connection with some of the best factory districts and turns out an immense amount of tonnage in a year. The rumor now is that the Pittsburgh Coal company will turn this into a combination between the P. & L. E. and the proposed road of the Pittsburgh Coal company, and that the latter will agree not to build between Youngstown and Pittsburgh, but will give its business for that direction to the P. & L. E.

This is one of the strongest combinations that could have been made. It is rather distressing to the other carriers in this territory and has a big influence on the business through the coal ports. It seems that the Pittsburgh Coal company has continued in its decision to build the road from Youngstown to Mentor Marsh and there construct its coal docks for the handling of a coal portion of its lake business. The Pittsburgh Coal company is what is known as the coal trust of the lake shipping section of the Pittsburgh district. It practically controls all of the coal that comes out of the Pittsburgh district, having only one competitor to date of any consequence. The deal which is about to be put through is one of the first magnitude. Taken with the announcement that the Jones & Laughlin company intends to abandon its project to build to the lakes from the Pittsburgh district, the development is most important and clears the air remarkably.

LUTHERAN CONFERENCE
AT ROCHESTER TODAY

Many Interesting Church Topics Will Be Discussed By Ministers.

Rev. J. G. Reinartz, pastor of St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church of this city, left this morning for Rochester, Pa., where he will attend the 85th convention of the Middle conference, Pittsburgh synod, of the Lutheran church. The meeting is being held in St. Paul's church, Rochester, and the first session was held this afternoon. The convention will last until tomorrow evening. The program follows:

STRONG EVIDENCE OF FAITH

Will Reed Guarantees That Hyomei Will Cure the Worst Cases of Catarrh in Ear, Nose and Throat.

When one of the most reputable concerns in East Liverpool guarantees that a medicine will effect a cure or he will return the money, it speaks volumes as to the merits of the remedy. It is in this way that Will Reed is selling Hyomei, the treatment that has made the many remarkable cures of both acute and chronic cases of catarrh in East Liverpool and vicinity.

Hyomei is not a pill nor is it a liquid that has to be taken with a tablespoon or wine glass. Just breathe it in by the aid of an inhaler that comes in every outfit and benefit will be seen from the first treatment. It destroys all germ life in the passages and lungs and enriches and purifies the blood with additional ozone. It cures catarrh of the head and throat, or of the stomach, liver and kidneys. Wherever mucous membrane contains catarrhal germs, there Hyomei will do its work of healing. When using this treatment the air you breathe will be found like that on the mountain high above the sea level where grow balsam trees and plants which made the air pure by giving off volatile antiseptic fragrance that is healing to the respiratory organs.

Tuesday, 2 p. m.—Devotions, led by the Rev. H. S. Gilbert; "The Church—Hindrances to Its Prosperity"—(a) From Within, the Rev. G. S. Seaman; (b) From Without, the Rev. D. L. Roth, D. D.

Wednesday, 9 a. m.—Matins, read by the Rev. R. G. Rosenbaum; business of conference; essay, "Extemporaneous Preaching vs. Written Sermon—Which?" the Rev. T. S. Brown, speaker, the Rev. W. H. Fehr, essay, "The Illustrative Element in Preaching," the Rev. D. H. Geissinger, D. D.; speaker, the Rev. D. M. Kemerer.

The X-Rays.
Recent experiments, by practical tests and examination with the aid of the X-Rays, establish it as a fact that catarrh of the stomach is not a disease of itself, but that it results from repeated attacks of indigestion. "How can I cure my indigestion?" Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is curing thousands. It will cure you of indigestion and dyspepsia, and prevent or cure catarrh of the stomach. Kodol digests what you eat—makes the stomach sweet. Sold by Alvin H. Bulger.

Paving the Public Square.
Lisbon, May 4.—(Special)—Work will be commenced in a few days on the paving of the section of street above the northeast corner of the public square, with the completion of which the entire square will be paved. The property owners about the square will bear the whole expense, about $2,000. C. S. Speaker has bought the bonds for the amount.

A Prisoner in Her House.
Mrs. W. H. Lavha, of 1001 Agnes avenue, Kansas City, Mo., has for several years been troubled with severe hoarseness and at times a hard cough, which she says, "Would keep me in doors for days. I was prescribed by physicians with no noticeable results. A friend gave me a part of a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with instructions to closely follow the directions and I wish to state that after the first day I could notice a decided change for the better, and at this time after using it for two weeks, I have no hesitation in saying I realize that I am entirely cured. From this time on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will be in my house constantly." This remedy is for sale by Alvin H. Bulger.

EIGHTY-FIVE YEARS OLD.

Wellsville Woman Surprised On Her Birthday By Relatives From This City.

Relatives to the number of 50, including the children, grandchildren and great grandchildren of Mrs. Mary Dillon surprised her at the residence of her son, Aaron Dillon, of Wellsville. The occasion was the eighty-fifth anniversary of the lady. The party from the East End went in a body and were joined at other points along the car line by numerous other relatives. The day was pleasantly spent by those present and were royally entertained by Grandma Dillon, who is enjoying the best of health.

A SECOND OPERATION

Necessary in the Case of a Woman Who Badly Injured Her Hand.

Dr. W. M. Calhoun went to Wellsville today, to be present at an operation which will be performed on his sister, Mrs. H. C. Aughrbaugh, who recently inflicted an injury to her hand with a cleaver, while engaged in cutting meat. At the time Mrs. Aughrbaugh cut her hand the wound was not considered dangerous, but did not heal very rapidly, and the hand was operated on. Last week Mrs. Aughrbaugh's arm commenced to swell, causing her great pain and the danger of blood poisoning setting in was feared, making a second operation necessary.

The attending physicians and the many friends of the lady are hoping that serious results will not follow.

Pipe Laying Finished.

The merchants of Mulberry street are gratified to know that the work of putting in the new water pipes will be finished some time today. The pipes have been scattered about the street since last winter, and now that they are underground the street will be in much better shape. The force of men of the water department who have been engaged in doing this work will go from the East End to Brant's pottery, where much work will be done.

Expect to Find Oil.

The Rock Run Oil and Gas company on Saturday let the contract for the first well of six that will be drilled on their leases at Knoxville. An Allegheny concern will do the drilling. The well of Harrison Rinehart at Knoxville has shown good indications as far as it has been drilled and is expected in today.

Has Bought a Store.

Rev. J. W. Howard, of the Free Methodist denomination, has purchased the store of Alex. Chafin, of Erie street, and will continue at the same stand. Mr. Chafin and family will move this week to the James West farm, one and one-half miles out from Calcutta, which he purchased some time ago.

EAST END AFFAIRS.

Mort Calhoun spent Sunday visiting relatives at Fairview, W. Va.

Mrs. Cal Price, of St. George street, left this morning on a business trip at Meekinsstown.

Edward McAfee is very ill at his home on Ohio avenue, threatened with an attack of fever.

A fine baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. George Clendinning, of Oakland, on Saturday morning.

Mrs. Wade Wolfe, of First avenue, lies dangerously ill of typhoid fever. Last night Mrs. Wolfe was delirious and her friends are much alarmed at her condition.

S. L. Polen, who has been ill at his home in Wellsville for the past five weeks with typhoid fever, is steadily improving and hopes to be able to return to work the latter part of the week.

Miss Blanche Mowen, of Pennsylvania avenue, has been confined to the house the past few days, very ill. Her condition shows but little signs of improvement and it is feared that typhoid fever may develop.

THE NEW ACTS OF THE APOSTLES

A Grand Desideratum—The Example of the Disciples a Lesson to the Modern World—Sermon By Rev. Dr. Pratt.

The spacious auditorium of the First M. E. church was filled to its capacity at both the morning and evening service yesterday and as usual beautiful music and able sermons were highly enjoyed by everyone present. The pastor, Dr. Pratt, was somewhat fatigued as the result of his strenuous labors during the past few months but he seemingly cast aside all signs of weariness and in his characteristic manner preached with the same vigor and enthusiasm that has endeared him so conspicuously to his large congregation.

In the evening Dr. Pratt chose as his subject, "The New Acts of the Apostles." It was founded on the 42d and 43d verses of the second chapter of the Acts, "And they continued steadfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers. And fear came upon every soul; and many wonders and signs were done by the apostles." In part he said:

"This great book of the Acts began by a statement of the wonderful things that Christ had done; of his marvelous teachings and his wonderful life. It closes with the story of Paul dwelling in his own house and preaching for two years the grand lessons of Jesus. He preached the kingdom of God and taught those things which concern the Lord Jesus, with all confidence, no man forbidding him.

"Since then the church has been writing its own acts of apostles, and the apostles of today are not to be compared with those of that generation. Though in the days of Christ and of Paul the apostolic writers were enthused and endowed with power and the spirit from an apparent giver it must not be accepted now that there are none living who are not possessed of the same gifts and inspiration. One of the greatest apostolic writers of the present age is Father Cohn and the ages and eras considered no writer of the apostolic epoch was more able or more eminently qualified for the work. Men, it seems, have been hitherto afraid to write on the teachings and beautiful lessons of the Bible. They seem to fear their capability, thinking themselves unable to define the laws of God in a manner acceptable. In these fears they are wrong, for the same God that put his hand on holy men of ancient times puts his hand on the righteous men of today. He places in their hearts the same spirit and principle.

"While we are to get much from the life of Christ as portrayed by the apostolic writings, we must not forget or neglect the writings and teachings of the inspired ones of today. If the Bible were destroyed, completely obliterated, we would not long be without a book of equal greatness. Our great men of today, those whose very hearts and souls are bubbling over with the spirit of God would write a book that would save the entire world. Jesus would come to earth and cry again, 'I would suffer and die for him, well pleased.' The God that led the first church is ready to lead the church of today. There is not a soul goes forth less sanctified, less ordained, less supervised or less anointed than was bestowed upon Paul.

"Come thou day of socialism, if it be of a Christian nature. We need a reproduction of the apostolic era when everything was hoarded together and used for the salvation of Jesus Christ. The time is soon to come when the people of the world will carry the riches and put it altogether for the grand and noble purpose of planting religion in the uttermost parts of the universe, to the people who know not the love of God. 'God is the same always. He is the same at our wedding feasts, at our enjoyments, and our weepings. He is as thoughtful and interested in us as in those of old. There are men among us over whom he is bending and urging to go forth and do as did the apostles. He will support them. He will endow them with the radiant love and triumphant glory possessed by the apostles. Let us go forth as did they, resistless, and come back as triumphant! This is a day of continued apostolic work and it is now the duty to preach the love and greatness of Christ from pulpits in every country of the known world."

CHRIST'S SUFFERING FOR THE WORLD

Theme of An Eloquent Sermon By Rev. W. M. Hamilton at Presbyterian Church.

Rev. Wallace M. Hamilton, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Coshocton, occupied the pulpit at the First church here yesterday both morning and evening. He is an able speaker, and both discourses were attended by large congregations and were thoroughly enjoyed.

The suffering of God through Jesus Christ for the salvation of the world was the theme taken up by the speaker. The deliverance of the children of Israel was touched upon as an illustration of the reality of vicarious suffering. The Israelites endured many tribulations and suffered much for the sins of their fathers. The prophet draws a vivid picture of the vicarious suffering of God, a picture that is answered only in Jesus Christ, the light of the world.

The scripture is the law that holds the world together. The truth of vicarious suffering has long been established, even though it appears perplexing to many. Is it right that I should suffer for the sins of another? No man has ever stood firm under the many temptations which we meet in every day life that he did not aid a score of others. No man ever fell that he did not take a score of others with him.

Vicarious suffering holds us close together. Our civilization has only been possible through vicarious suffering, and that which ought to keep you and me from sin is the fact that God suffers because we are not more willing to see the right. Vicarious suffering is greater than the real suffering of the world. It is not suffering of moral or religious origin, but the suffering of daily life. No one has ever risen to his full height that has not born the trials and suffering of others. This is not sentiment, but the truth of God himself. It is the suffering of God through Christ that made the transformation of the world possible.

In conclusion the speaker said: "May God today mould your lives that they may be free from sin. May we realize that God suffers for our sins through Christ. God bears all our sins willingly that He may have the honor

In a recent issue of the New York Magazine of Sanitation and Hygiene, the recognized authority on all matters pertaining to health, James H. Montgomery, M. D., says editorially:

"After a careful investigation of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, a trouble for kidney, liver and bladder troubles, rheumatism, dyspepsia and constipation with its attendant ills, we are free to confess that a more meritorious medicine has never come under the examination of the chemical and medical experts of the New York Magazine of Sanitation and Hygiene. In fact, after the most searching tests and rigid inquiry into the record of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, it becomes a duty to recommend its use in unequivocal terms to every reader of this journal whose complaint comes within the list of ailments which this remedy is advertised to cure. We have obtained such overwhelming proof of the efficacy of this specific—have so satisfactorily demonstrated its curative powers through personal experiments—that a care for the interests of our readers leads us to call attention to its great value."

ONE OF THE DEADLY SINS IS THAT OF GAMBLING

Rev. Edwin Weary Condemns the Practice As a Crime Before God and Man.

Rev. Edwin Weary, rector of St. Stephen's Episcopal church, preached to a large and appreciative audience last evening on the subject, "The Sin of Gambling." It was a very interesting theme and the rector was given undivided attention throughout his discourse. He said in part:

"It is asserted that it is not a sin to gamble. I say that it is. Is there a man imbued with a Christian spirit, the love of God, that seeks the companionship of the gambler? I don't think there is. Such are always seen to be seeking the intimacy of those of good standing. Gambling is not sportsmanlike because it spoils the cleanliness of all legitimate sports; it is not gentlemanly for no true gentleman will gamble. I will not condemn sports by classing gambling among them. Sports, when they test the bravu, skill and strength of true manhood, are legitimate and worthy a place in the pursuits of men; when gambling enters into the sport, whatever it may be, it robs the game of its cleanliness.

"Gambling forms one of the deadly sins and is placed under the head of covetousness. It is a pursuit found only among the low men for the possessing of the illegitimate dollar. Betting is one of the lusts of the flesh. It is deteriorating to character, not elevating. Betting is illegitimate interest because it is obtaining money under false pretense.

"Gambling is a crime before man and God as is shown by its results. The statistics show that out of the vast army of mortals inclosed in our penitentiaries most of them are embezzlers and they have committed the crime on account of the obligations caused by gambling. The greater number of suicides are also caused by gambling and the entire category of the criminology will reveal the fact that gambling is the direct or indirect cause of crime in its multitudinous forms."

Sermons on Faith.

At the First Christian church yesterday the pastor, Rev. J. W. Gorrell, preached two extremely interesting and inspiring sermons to his usually large congregations. In the morning he preached on the subject, "Work the Test of Faith," and in the evening on "The Noblest Men are Nothing When Trust Gives Way to Despair." He spoke of the need man has of implicit trust in the Lord. A really noble man was such because he trusted and when his trust gave way and was exceeded by despair his character gave way also and he was nothing in comparison with his former self.

Mayor W. A. Weaver has now entered upon the duties of the office to which he was elected. A new law has gone into effect, by which the duties and responsibilities of the office of mayor are greatly increased. And a mayor who had a conscience and a keen sense of responsibility had no light task before. Moreover, East Liverpool has grown rapidly and each succeeding mayor, even under the old law, has found his work increasing all the time. Mayor Weaver, though without previous experience in official life, brings to his new position the ripe judgment of mature years and the knowledge of men and affairs gained in a long and successful business career. The people are looking to him, as they have a right to do, for a business administration, and regardless of party politics, will second all his efforts in that direction. There will be no disposition on the part of any loyal citizen to place obstacles in his way; on the other hand, the public will gladly lend any assistance in its power to make his administration a success in the true sense of the word, through the equitable enforcement of the laws and the advancement of best interests of the city. And the press will gladly co-operate.

far as is apparent to an outsider, complete harmony exists throughout its membership. There is no disagreement between the East and West, and the problem of choosing a successor to President Hughes will be decided regardless of sectional lines. No grave questions that affect the trade are likely to arise that cannot be amicably settled. The pottery workers as a whole are a busy body of men just at present and will doubtless take no steps calculated to disturb the harmonious relations existing between themselves and their employers. East Liverpool, deeply interested in the present convention, hopes most sincerely that good will and the best interests of all concerned, may guide the delegates in their deliberations.

The carpenters and the contractors are to be congratulated, and the public also, upon the settlement of the differences upon which a disagreement has existed for more than a month. Although, owing to the fact that a considerable number of the contractors signed the scale soon after it was presented, there has been no complete tie-up of building operations, the fact that a strike condition existed has seriously retarded many projects of importance. Now that the last vestige of a strike in this important trade has disappeared and that all the other labor disputes are either settled or in a fair way to be adjusted speedily, there is nothing in the way of the present season being one of the busiest ever experienced in the building trades of East Liverpool. The city needs all the new houses that are likely to be built during the coming summer and more besides. Let the good work proceed.

The hospital association is to be congratulated on another donation. It can use many more of the same sort, and in a period of prosperity like the present ought not to be handicapped for lack of funds. It is not to the credit of East Liverpool that neighboring cities with far less wealth and population than our own have finely equipped hospitals, while the unfortunate stranger within our gates, if sick or the victim of an accident, has no place to which he may demand admission, and must look out for himself however enfeebled his condition. The sooner this city can remedy all this the more creditable it will be to her reputation and the more satisfactory to all persons of humane feelings.

Mayor Davidson retires from office a more popular man than when he entered it. This is saying a good deal, considering the duties he has fulfilled and the difficulties he has encountered during the past three years, and considering the fact that he was a very popular man to start with. He has made few enemies and a great many friends while holding the office of mayor, and the good will and good wishes of all whose friendship is worth having follow him upon his retirement to private life.

American farmers are such successful wheat growers that 56 per cent of the crop goes abroad. England alone paid $67,000,000 for American wheat in 1901. The present prospect is that our wheat harvest of 1903 will be a record breaker.

Out in Missouri they are talking of a Dockery presidential boom. Mr. Dockery seems to have many good points, but they say he eats pie with a knife.

Hetty Green says every woman ought to know how to keep house. Almost any woman with Hetty's money would know how to do it.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Margaret Ridinger.

Mrs. Margaret Ridinger, of Sixth street, aged 72, widow of the late Samuel Ridinger, died at her home this morning at 7 o'clock after an illness of nearly two months. She had, however, been confined to her bed but ten days. Funeral services will be held at the home Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. C. G. Jordan officiating. Interment will be made in Riverview cemetery.

Mrs. Ridinger was a life-long resident of Columbiana county and lived in the house in which she died for 36 years, moving to the city from Wellsville. She was a faithful and consistent member of the First Presbyterian church. Five grandchildren, a sister, Mrs. Nancy Dishong, and two daughters, Mrs. Rachel B. Loomis, at home, and Mrs. Anna Trede, Lincoln avenue, are her survivors.

Mrs. James Parker.

Mrs. James Parker, of Calloun's addition, 46 years of age, died at her home Saturday afternoon after an illness of over a year's duration. The cause of Mrs. Parker's death was cancer of the stomach. She took very ill about ten days ago and gradually grew worse. She is survived by her husband and six children, Mrs. A. McKinnon, Margaret, Robert, James, Annie and Ruth, all of whom reside in the East End. The funeral will take place from the family residence on Wednesday. Rev. G. W. Orcutt will officiate at the funeral ceremony and the burial will take place at Wellsville, the former home of Mrs. Parker.

Mrs. Nancy Sloan.

Mrs. Nancy Sloan, mother of Dr. William J. Sloan, died at her home on Fifth street Saturday evening from the infirmities of old age, she being nearly 90 years old. Mrs. Sloan previously resided in Allegheny, making her home with her daughter-in-law. She had been a resident of this city about two years and was highly respected and esteemed by all. Dr. Sloan is the only surviving member of the family. Mrs. Sloan's husband having died several years ago. The remains were taken to Allegheny this morning, where funeral services were held this afternoon. Rev. Mr. Milligan officiating.

Charles Miller.

Charles Miller, aged 35, died at his home in the East End Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, after a two weeks' illness with typhoid pneumonia. The funeral will be conducted at the home tomorrow afternoon by Rev. J. G. Reinartz, pastor of St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church. Burial will follow in Spring Grove cemetery. Mr. Miller was well known in the city as an honest and industrious baker. He was last in the employment of Andrew Galm. A wife and four small children, together with a mother, sister and brother, survive.

Homer Egges.

Homer, the 5-year-old son of L. S. Egges, of Second street, succumbed to an attack of heart disease at noon today. The boy had been ill since last winter and was thought fairly on the road to recovery, and his death came as a surprise. Funeral arrangements have not as yet been made.

Charles Starkey.

Charles, aged 2 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Starkey, of Avondale street and Bradshaw avenue, died early Sunday morning after a long illness. The father is employed at the C. & P. freight depot. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon.

Don't fool with a cold; no one can tell what the end may be. Pneumonia, catarrh, chronic bronchitis and consumption invariably result from neglected colds. Nothing can be compared with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as a quick cure for colds and influenza, and by its use these diseases may be avoided. For sale by Alvin H. Bulger.

The Holland Brush is made of metal, beautifully nickel-plated, the body and teeth of same being hollow, admitting of boiling water, and will dry a lady's hair, after washing in a very few minutes after passing the brush through the hair as you would an ordinary comb or brush, leaving the hair soft and fluffy. In the old way it takes hours to do the same and always with the danger of contracting a cold. It is indispensable where there are children. The Holland Brush will last a life time.

The average theatrical manager of the present is so intent upon devising novelties to please the fatted public that he too often overlooks the opportunities which are furnished by the older sort of dramas and melodramas. It is one of the most inspiring signs of the times, however, that the people are gradually abandoning the hackneyed farce comedies and the variety shows without variety for the good old-fashioned plays in which heart interest predominates. Proof of this statement is found in the fact that one of the greatest successes of recent years has been achieved this season by a melodrama in which love is the pervading sentiment. The title of the play is "For Her Sake," and the story deals with life in Russia and Siberia. The Carpenter company, who have the piece under their management, have spared no labor or expense upon it and have succeeded in producing a melodrama which is without doubt superior to the average of its kind. "For Her Sake" will be seen at the Grand, Thursday evening, May 7.

"As You Like It" is seldom as you like it. It is generally as you don't like it, can't like it as you couldn't like it if you wanted to; as you have no business to like it if you have any regard for the niceties, the correctness, then the respectabilities of the stage. Ernest Shipman doesn't ask much of our town. He asks you to come and see a Shakespearean play, because he guarantees it shall be played. He affirms that for years his star, Miss Alberta Gallatin, has been accepted as an actress who can and will not Rosalind and he has not resented his actress by surrounding her with anything but people who know their business, and a set of people that Shakespeare ordered and that he, Shipman, has bought, paid for, and carries. Wednesday evening, May 6, at the Grand.

"My Friend From India."

The St. Louis Globe says: "My Friend From India," which was presented at the Metropolitan last night is the funniest conceit witnessed upon the local stage. To enumerate the succession of ludicrous situations would not begin to do justice to the force and its author, H. A. DuSouchet. The amusing complexities and predicaments are unexpected, and, in consequence, all the more effective, as anticipation does not dull the enjoyment of the actual scene. This merry farce will be presented here on next Tuesday evening, May 5.

"The Sign of the Cross," with all the original company, scenery, costumes and properties, will be welcome news for all those that have seen this great religious drama or those that only have heard of its great reputation. Over forty actors and two car loads of scenery are carried with the company.

There are over 100 team owners in the city and the task which confronted the officers when the movement began was not an easy one. To the present every owner of a team in the city has been seen and all but eight of them have signed the agreement to pay the $2 per day and grant nine hours. Four of the eight still remaining out are coal men, and are not making a fight against the demands of the drivers. It is thought the entire matter will have been closed up by the end of the week.

No change has been noted in the situation of the painters in their strike for an eight-hour day and an advance in wages. The master painters have agreed to compromise on a basis of eight hours at the old rate of wages and state they will not yield another point under any circumstances. On the other hand the journeymen are just as firm in their determination to stand out for their original demands, and will accept no compromise. The workmen are all employed at present, but the bosses think when the work now on hand has

It is possible the plumbers' strike may be settled this afternoon between the two parties to the controversy, and if the journeymen can see their way clear to make a small concession, the strike can be settled at once.

The union had asked for an eight-hour day and seven hours on Saturday, the wages to remain the same as heretofore—$1 per day. The master plumbers asked that the wages be fixed at $1.50 per day for a 48-hour week. No progress has been made toward a settlement, as the journeymen plumbers would not entertain the proposition made by their employers. It is said the bosses have a new suggestion to offer at the meeting this afternoon, and it may be that the men will accept.

WELLSVILLE

Enters Upon Its Duties Today — The Auditorship Important.

The city government starts today under the new municipal code and Charles R. McGregor, Jr., auditor-elect, takes his office in Wellsville. This office is one of the most important on the list and the city is considered fortunate in securing so competent and capable a man for the place. The business of this position is to look after the city's accounts and no bill, however small, can be paid until it has passed his close inspection.

This additional office will take considerable time and trouble from the councilmen, as heretofore all bills were approved by council. A new check system will be in vogue under the new arrangement and every department of the city will be separate. This will enable him to tell without a search the correct condition of all funds.

Mr. McGregor was in Cleveland some time ago to receive instructions relative to his duties and is now ready to enter the work with a clear understanding of all points connected with his position.

No arrangements have yet been made for an office and he will still continue in his old office at Fourth and Main streets, where he has had his law office.

MEETS TO ORGANIZE

First Session of New City Council of Wellsville Tonight.

The new Wellsville council will hold its first meeting this evening. Under the new code the council is composed of eight members instead of 10. The new members are: A. B. Crubagh, president; William A. O'Grady, Frank C. Blackburn, D. E. McDonald, Robert Anderson, C. V. Shoub, James Bissett and J. A. Joseph.

The chief business of this session will be reorganization and an explanation of the duties of the council under the code. Should these things not take up too much time some other important questions, which were left unsettled by the old members, will, no doubt, receive some discussion.

The improvements and finance committees will not be necessary in the new council, as the board of public service takes the place of the improvement committee and the auditor will, in a measure, fill the finance committee's place. Some of the business which has been so long neglected by the old board will be the first things accomplished, especially the removal of the water works office to enable the postoffice room to be enlarged and free mail delivery established without delay.

Water Works Superintendent.

The board of public service, after taking the oath of office this morning held a meeting and appointed the following officials: C. E. Ewing, superintendent of water works, salary $1,000, bond $500; H. W. Sinclair, clerk, salary $60 per month; J. G. Stewart, cemetery sexton, salary $50 per month; Alexander Culp, supervisor of highways, salary $2 per day.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM SUDDEN DEATH

Mrs. Molly Shay And Son Thrown from a Buggy in a Runaway.

Mrs. Mollie Shay and son Walter, 17 years of age, of Fairview, had a miraculous escape from death at 10 o'clock this morning. They were on their way to East Liverpool and at a point near the Locust Hill cemetery, on the Fairview road, the horse, a spirited one, becoming frightened at a loose strap which kept striking him about the legs, started off at a rapid gait. The road is very steep and the horse was unmanageable.

Mrs. Shay and her son were thrown out, their rig colliding with that of a party on the way to the funeral of Mrs. John P. Miller at Gas Valley. Mrs. Shay was badly bruised, but the boy was unhurt.

TROUBLE AT A BALL GAME

Resulted in the Arrest of Umpire and One Spectator.

Put for the presence of Chief Allison at the game of ball between teams of Crookery City and Chester Saturday afternoon a general melee would have resulted. The game was hotly contested, the services of six different umpires was found necessary before the game was through with, which resulted in a score of 18 to 12 in favor of the Chester team. Toward the close of the game the pitcher of the Chester team, Harvey Cullen, took exception to a decision of "Noodles" Rusby, the umpire, and stated his intention of quitting the game. "Noodles" did not like the idea of his rulings being questioned and walked toward Cullen and struck him a terrific blow in the face. Alvin, an older brother of Cullen, resented the striking of his brother by

Chief Allison then took a hand in the affray and placed the elder Cullen and Rusby under arrest after separating them and conducted them before Squire Johnston, who fined Cullen $5.00 and Rusby $9.50 for their fun.

Rusby for the use of profane language narrowly escaped a jail sentence and received a scolding from the justice, but was released by the payment of his fine by his friends.

RELIEVED OF $45

William Nelson Lost a Large Roll While Sleeping Out Of Doors.

William Nelson was relieved of about $45 while he peacefully slumbered on the platform in front of a store on Carolina avenue near the park Saturday night, about 11 o'clock. Nelson had considerable money early in the evening, and got separated from it, returning to Chester shortly before the rest was taken from him. A number of his friends tried to get his watch and money from him for safe keeping, with only partial success.

Nelson turned over his gold watch to Richard Banfield, who also wanted to care for his money, but Nelson would not give it up. Little time elapsed ere Nelson and his pay envelope was transferred to hands more appreciative.

CHESTER NOTES.

Edward Stewart was in Chester from New Cumberland on Saturday.

Miss Ruth Baxter, teacher of the Chester schools, spent Sunday with friends at Fairview.

C. T. McCutcheon has just installed a fine new cash register in his drug store on Virginia avenue.

Miss Jane Stewart was compelled to leave her work as teacher in the Chester schools on account of an attack of tonsillitis. She is quite ill.

It is said the deal for coal land near New Cumberland will be closed by F. E. McElfresh within the next few weeks. The land embraces between 2,000 and 3,000 acres, and the price to be paid is something like $600,000.

Nature hid one of her greatest blessings in the liver of a fish, but practically prohibited its use by the nauseating grease and fishy flavor. Science has now extracted this good without the grease, and presented it to suffering humanity in the form of Hagee's Cordial of Cod Liver Oil.

REALM OF SPORTS

LEETSDALE LOST
BUT WERE HAPPY

They Came Expecting a Shutout
and Went Wild Over the Scoring of Two Runs.

WALTON WAS THE VICTIM

Of Stage Fright And Played a Game
That Caused His Immediate Release—Tommy Davis Was There
With the Goods And Won the Game.

It isn't very often that a defeated base ball team leaves a diamond in good spirits, and until Saturday afternoon an aggregation of that kind of people never played in the West End park. Notwithstanding that they had lost the game the Leetsdale boys trailed from the park with colors flying and gloriously triumphant. They had made two runs, in spite of the fact that they had anticipated nothing short of a shutout. The fans of their own town wagered 20 to 5 that they would not score a run. No wonder, is it, that they were so joyful.

When they boarded the evening train for home all were singing "We Got Ours, Boys; You Got Yours." They know their speed now and no more will be backward in challenging teams of the Pittsburgh district. It will only be necessary for their corresponding secretary to write: "We are not particular about a game, but if you people want to play us, who diverted a shutout when we were up against East Liverpool, we will accommodate you."

If Tommy Davis had become suddenly sick at about 4 o'clock no doubt the visitors would have had even a better story to tell upon their arrival home. It was Tommy and Tommy alone who won the game for the locals. He played the best game of his life, one that is not witnessed every day and his record, two runs, two singles, a three-bagger, two put outs and three assists was the big feature of the game. How he managed to do it under the circumstances will never be known. He must have just forgotten all about Walton or perhaps it was through sympathy for the Martin's Ferry man that he so exerted himself.

It really was a good thing for the locals that some one did not fall down simply "put the bug" on Harker, and as a result the latter came dangerously near hitting himself for the fire. Walton is gone now. On the morning train yesterday he departed and no one but himself was seen shedding tears at the depot. The unfortunate fellow was in company several too fast.

Duff Emmertling usually plays a fine game, and it was a big surprise to every one when he fell down so hard. It looked as though he was far enough away from Walton to escape the fever. He was throwing them wild, but will not do it any more, he says, and that is sufficient.

For four innings each side scored a goose egg and from the manner in which Good was putting them over it was feared that if any runs were made at all it would all be done on the other side. Had he cut out sending locals down to first on four balls his game would have been as pretty as one would wish to see. Poor support had him up against it, and it is a wonder that he held up as he did. Fourteen strike-outs is no small thing, and it is said that the local management had their eyes on the lad, too.

Taylor started the excitement for the visitors. He surprised himself by landing a pretty single and stole second while G. Weber was being struck out. J. Sevens scored him when he singles and he also got excited when Leight was fanning. Two good throws by Emmertling have prevented the steals. Good popped a little one to short and Walton stood as a stone statue while it dropped within six inches of his face. Harker could have nabbed it, but it was not his ball and the blame goes to the man that arrived in the city with a trunkload of good recommendations. Copeland knocked another one down to short and while Walton was throwing it at an imaginary second base J. Sevens scored. A. Sevens walked on a fielder's choice and Mortimer ended the performance by batting one at Walton that even Harker could have handled.

The runs for the locals did not come in bunches. They were distributed among three innings. Davis got the first one in the sixth by a hit, a steal and a walk on Winters' single. Wallace was credited with the next one reaching second on a two bagger and crossing the plate when McNutt pounded out a single. Davis made the third one without trouble, landing on third after placing a nice one in right field and at home on Murphy's single.

Features of the Game.
It was no fault of Good's that the visitors lost.
The Pennsylvania youths came expecting a shutout and it was a hard proposition for them to keep the ground when the fifth was over.

Practice makes perfect; Tommy Davis needs very little more.

Poor Walton comes from too far down the river. It may have been stage fright, though.

Taylor tried hard enough to outdo Davis, but he fell short in several points. He was all right at that.

Murphy is the lad that can always be depended upon. They never shoot too high for him and with the stick he has proven better than the average.

WELLSVILLE TEAM

Grounds in Shape And the Base Ball Season Will Open Saturday.

The suits for the Wellsville base ball team arrived Saturday morning. They are of dark gray with the word "Wellsville" in large letters over the breast. The diamond is all rolled and in the best of condition. The grand stand is nearly completed and when finished it will be one of every convenience and will seat about 300 people comfortably. The fence surrounding the grounds is completed.

All the players are expected to arrive today and hard practice will be had all this week. The manager refused to give out the lineup, as some changes are likely to be made before the first game.

The season will open Saturday, May 6, with the Sycamore Athletic club, of Pittsburgh. This team has a good record and have considerable practice already this season and promise to put up a good game. The Wellsville boys, however, are confident of victory, but will practice hard all week for the game. The game which will no doubt create considerable excitement is the one with the East Liverpool Athletic club on May 13 and 14. There has always been a great deal of contention between the sports of both cities and both teams will try hard to come out victorious. A large crowd is expected at the game Saturday.

Lisbon Boys Beaten.

A very interesting game of base ball was played Saturday on the mill diamond, Wellsville, between two juvenile teams, one of that city and the other of Lisbon. The Wellsville boys trimmed up the visitors to the tune of 18 to 12. Charles Wilson officiated. The feature of the game was the batting of the Wellsville lads. The Lisbon boys came in the morning in a spring wagon and returned early that evening.

SPORTING MISCELLANY.

Terry McGovern has started life anew as a bookmaker.

Rube Waddell holds the strike-out record for the season. He has ten to his credit.

Fifty-two dollars a game is what Willie Keeler gets for this season with New York.

An American has purchased the Lascas, the schooner yacht, which won the Kaiser's cup last year.

Joe Smith, catcher of the New York Americans, if he can secure a release State league, will catch for the Boston from Ilion.

Jake Stahl, the Illinois college base ball player, has received an offer of $500 a month to catch for the Boston Americans.

Word from Cleveland states to the effect that all of the American league games scheduled for Cleveland on Sundays are to be transferred to the Meyer's lake grounds at Canton.

HOME AFFAIRS.

Brief Notes of a Personal Nature And of Matters About Town.

A Baby Boy—Mr. and Mrs. James N. McFarland, of Fourth street, report the arrival of a fine baby boy on Saturday.

Parish Meeting—A meeting will be held tonight of parishioners of St. Stephen's parish for the purpose of electing vestrymen and hearing annual reports.

Church Socials—Coke socials were held Saturday afternoon by ladies of both the Presbyterian and Christian churches. Both were well attended and profitable.

G. A. R. Excursion—All those desiring to attend the G. A. R. encampment at Marietta are requested to hand their names to W. H. Surles, Justice Daniel McLane or Mack Anderson as soon as possible. A special car may be secured if enough persons are going. Fare for the round trip, $2.40, open to the public.

MOTHER'S JEWELS

The Society Agreeably Entertained at the Home of E. W. Fowler.

The children of the Mother's Jewel society of the First M. E. church spent an afternoon and evening of unusual pleasure on Saturday from 2 to 7 o'clock at the home of Mrs. E. W. Fowler on Fifth and Jackson streets. The early part of the afternoon was spent in games and at 6 o'clock on the spacious lawn of the Fowler home was served a luncheon which the children greatly enjoyed.

Following the luncheon a brief but excellent musical program was given by the children as follows: Song, "America," by the society; song, "The Daisy and the Raindrops," Geraldine Hirt; recitation, "My Son John," David Pratt; piano solo, Miss Agnes Jones; solo, Mildred Weaver; boys' trio, solo, Isabel Pratt; piano solo, Miss Agnes Jones.

The little children belonging to this society are greatly enjoying the meetings which take place at the home of Mrs. Fowler on stated days. The officers of the society who assisted Mrs. Fowler in entertaining were: President, Edith Cripps; vice president, Helen Viney; secretary, Isabel Pratt; treasurer, Mrs. E. W. Fowler; pianist, Edith Cripps.

New Century Club.

A meeting of the new Century club will take place next Saturday, May 9, at the home of Miss Newell. The program will be on interesting literary subjects. "American Social Reforms and Reformers" will be the theme of a paper read by Mrs. Laughlin. Miss Hazlett has taken the subject, "God in the Affairs of Nations." Current events will be discussed by Mrs. Holloway, and the afternoon will be made a profitable literary one.

HARRY M'FARLAND

NOW RECOVERING

VICTIM OF PRACTICAL JOKE HAD SERIOUS TIME.

Police Vigilance Will Be Exercised to Prevent Barbarity in Future.

Harry McFarland, the victim of the practical joke played upon him while he was sleeping in a Second street saloon the first of last week, is reported better. The terrible burns are healing a little and it is thought by continued careful treatment that he will eventually recover. The cause for the greatest fear as to his injuries arose from the fact of financial embarrassment, he having no money, which to secure proper treatment was a most essential feature. After the exclusive publication in the News Review of the cowardly and despicable act, the perpetrators becoming alarmed because of their exposure, immediately hunted the injured man up and promised to strand all expenses and repay him in various other ways if he would not prosecute. Though he is doing nicely now, he still suffers excruciating pain and is in abject misery at times. He is very joyful over the outlook for recovery.

It is learned, since the story of this one heinous act leaked out, that there are few men that lounge around several resorts on Smoky Row that are free from scars and awful burns as the result of former brutal practices. The practice has been in vogue for a year and while McFarland is the only one that has been badly sufficiently to give cause for alarm, others have been terribly injured.

The police have determined to put a stop to the so-called fun-making and arrest every man found implicated in playing such jokes in the future. The penalty for the offense is imprisonment in the penitentiary and the guilty parties will get the full extent of the law.

ELABORATE PROGRAM

Prepared for the Social to Be Held by the Clerks Tomorrow Evening.

Grocery and butcher clerks' union No. 292 of this city has arranged for a social session to be held at its hall over the postoffice tomorrow evening. An elaborate program has been prepared, which includes a number of addresses by members and their friends. One of the most pleasing numbers on the program will be an address by Elijah W. Hill, who assisted in the work of organizing the union in this city several years ago.

The local is now in a prosperous condition, having a very large membership and an agreement with the merchants which makes the conditions of work and hours the best in this section of the state. It is likely the meeting Tuesday night will have the effect of interesting a large number of clerks who are eligible to membership, but who have not affiliated with it.

to do. All the delegates were properly qualified, as there were no contests or irregularities to pass upon.

President Hughes appointed these committees:

Credentials committee—E. L. Hutton, R. H. Smith, John Kidd, James Marriott, Aaron Coleman and W. J. McKeone.

The credentials committee met in executive session immediately after the speech of President Hughes in reply to Mayor Sweeney and reported this afternoon.

The session this afternoon was largely taken up by the reports of the national officers and practically nothing else will be considered today.

The members of the executive board, who preceded the delegates to the convention city, had very little to do. The questions brought to its attention were of minor importance and these were disposed of in a very short time. The board will make no recommendations to the convention.

The auditing committee soon completed its labors, as the books of every national officer had been kept in such a way as to make this work a very simple matter. The books of every officer were in shipshape order.

Perhaps 50 delegates reached the city yesterday. The Trenton delegation was one of the first to arrive and is quartered at the Brunswick. Most of the early arrivals from East Liverpool are stopping at the Grand Central.

Patrick Duffy and Len Martin, representing the Camden local, and Joseph D. Bradley, Charles W. Hulton, James Marriott, Patrick F. Culbertson, Daniel O'Connor, Thomas Walkert, George Dix, W. H. Wootton, George Martin, of the Trenton locals, held an informal reception yesterday afternoon at the Brunswick. Misses Miller and Bauch, representing Ford City, are also at this hostelry.

First Vice President Hutchins, Charles Fulton and James Bratton are at the Grand Central. Major Adams, Shelton Moore, R. A. Webber and Thomas Doherty, of East Liverpool, are all at this hostelry.

Mr. Hutchins is a conspicuous figure among the delegates. He is popular and congenial, and yesterday spent most of the time renewing old acquaintances. Under no circumstances will he be a candidate, either for president or secretary. A reporter yesterday afternoon put the question to him point blank.

"I couldn't think of becoming a candidate for president," he said. "Any report that I am a candidate did not come from me," he continued. "If the delegates persisted and selected me I

QUICK RESULTS.

A lost watch, which had been advertised in another paper, was restored to the owner Saturday evening within an hour after the owner had advertised the loss in the News Review. It pays always to advertise in the paper that the people read.

would decline to accept. It would mean that I leave Trenton for East Liverpool, which would require more sacrifices than I can make."

"Are you a candidate for secretary?" the reporter asked.

"I've never given it a thought," he replied, "because the same obstacles would be encountered. My mother is growing old and she has requested that I stay in Trenton with her. This request I cannot disregard."

"Will you accept the first vice presidency?" was asked.

This declaration from Mr. Hutchins leaves but one candidate in the field against Secretary Duffy, Harry Hailes, of Wheeling. There is some sentiment among the Wheeling delegates for Mr. Hailes, but underlying it there is a desire that Mr. Duffy be Hughes' successor. Mr. Hailes is not making any campaign and Mr. Duffy is maintaining a dignified silence. Some of the delegates say it is doubtful whether Mr. Duffy will stand for the presidency, but the majority believe he will accept if called upon. He certainly has the call for the honor and it is up to him to accept or decline.

The question as to who will succeed Mr. Duffy as secretary is much more complex. National Treasurer Woods is a candidate and he has at least two opponents from East Liverpool, P. J. McKeone and Frank Gratton. So far no candidates outside of East Liverpool, have been announced. It was stated yesterday that the kilnmen will give Mr. Woods, who is from this branch of the trade, their warmest support. The kilnmen are represented among the national officers solely by Mr. Woods and his position is not one of great emolument.

Messrs. Gratton and McKeone have strong supporters, and as both are well qualified, the contest may prove very interesting.

The question of a uniform scale, which will include the eastern arm of the organization, will be one of the most important with which the convention has to deal. The eastern general ware pressers, dippers and perhaps one other branch of the trade, have endorsed the uniform scale now in force in the western plants, but the kilnmen and jigmen are not satisfied with it. The kilnmen have instructed their delegates to insist upon a revision of the scale, giving this entire branch an increase. This resolution will not cause a great deal of trouble, but an acceptable solution for the jigmen promises to be of great difficulty. It was authoritatively stated yesterday that the jigmen were opposed to the present uniform list for the east. The western jigmen will ask for increases and this may make it more acceptable. As yet no solution has been advanced.

The delegates will go the guests to tomorrow evening of the Wheeling locals at the Grand opera house, where a first-class specialty company is the attraction. Thursday night they will be banqueted at the Pythian Castle, which event will be preceded by a trolley ride over the Wheeling Traction company's lines. Many other informal entertainments will be enjoyed.

Secretary T. J. Duffy, who, if he says the word will no doubt be President Hughes' successor, is a guest at the McClure.

President Hughes is the guest of his mother in the East End.

Major Adams, the veteran dipper, is a prominent figure among the delegates.

George Logan, of Findlay, is the delegate from the newest local in the Brotherhood, No. 67. He is a veteran presser and has been employed in Bell's plant for 14 years.

E. L. Hutton, of No. 32, is the busiest man in Wheeling. Saturday noon he left his dinner to outdo the fire department in reaching a blaze in the East End. It was a false alarm, but Ed did not show up until late in the afternoon. The supposition is he lost his way. He now carries a city directory.

The National Brotherhood Assembles at Wheeling Stronger and More Harmonious Than Ever.

GROWTH OVER 1,000 DURING THE PAST YEAR

BY O. H. BOOTON.
Staff Correspondent.

Wheeling, May 4.—National President A. S. Hughes, at 10:30 o'clock this morning, wielded his gavel, calling together the thirteenth annual convention of the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters. The convention is remarkable in many ways.

Never before has the organization been so prosperous and powerful. Hundreds of members have been enrolled since the convention held in Trenton last year, and the representation has been increased by 50 delegates. The exact strength of the Brotherhood cannot be determined from the number of delegates, as some of the locals organized in the past few months are entitled to but one representative.

The report of President Hughes, which was presented to the convention this afternoon, showed an increase of more than 1,000 members since last year's convention. The organization has been equally prosperous financially.

One prominent member said yesterday that if he had all the money that had passed through the national treasury during the year he could build and equip a large modern pottery.

Reports from all the national officers were presented today. That of President Hughes was a complete resume of the work of the year and the growth and prosperity thus shown was most satisfactory. The principal cause for congratulation was the return to the organization of the Trenton jiggermen, and there is general rejoicing over their return to the fold, even if it has given the Brotherhood one of the most perplexing questions to be solved in the convention.

The report of First Vice President Hutchins covered every detail of the reorganization of the jiggermen, and was one of the most interesting parts of the day's proceedings.

The actual work of the convention was scarcely touched upon today. When President Hughes called the delegates to order in the Carroll club's auditorium Harry Hailes, of this city, introduced Andrew Jackson Sweeney, Wheeling's popular mayor. Mr. Sweeney made a short address, notable more for its sincerity than its eloquence. He congratulated the potters upon their thorough organization, the intelligence of the delegates and assured them of the freedom of the city. Wheeling is certainly doing herself proud in caring for the members of the convention.

President Hughes, who does things rather than says them, followed with a neat little address, thanking the chief executive for the hospitality extended and the great interest manifested on all sides in the convention. He announced the members of the credentials committee and the convention then recessed until after dinner. The credentials committee had very little to do.

WYMAN AS POLICE CHIEF APPOINTED BY NEW MAYOR

Morley Continues as Chief of Fire Department, Both Appointments Being Temporary—Other New Officials Take Oath of Office.

W. A. Weaver is now mayor and John Wyman chief of police.

Mr. Weaver took the oath of office and was thereby sworn in as mayor of the city at 10 minutes before 9 o'clock this morning by the retiring executive, William C. Davidson. The scene was an imposing one and was enacted in the presence of City Auditor Willis Davidson, Sanitary Policeman Burgess, Officer Clifford Dawson and ex-Chief of Police Thomas V. Thompson.

At the conclusion of the brief ceremony Mayor Weaver was given a hearty handshake by all present and during the day he has been busy accepting congratulations.

Shortly after Mayor Weaver took his seat ex-Mayor Davidson bade farewell to the city hall and expressed his only regret that he did not like to leave the pleasant associates that have been with him around the city hall during his administration.

"They are all good fellows, and from that standpoint I never spent a happier period in my life," said he. "Nevertheless I am truly thankful that my time is up, and my sympathy will ever go out for the men who hold the position."

Davidson information incident to the books, office and gave him the assurance that he would do all in within his power to assist him in an understanding of the duties and the manner in which numerous questions are disposed of. Mayor Weaver in return thanked him for his courtesy and will listen kindly to any suggestions offered.

It did not take Mayor Weaver long to get down to business, and though he had no offenders to deal with he was soon called upon to discharge one of his official duties—that of administering the oath of office to the newly elected officials.

The first to stand the ordeal was Jack Shenkel, of the board of public service. He was sworn in at 9:35 o'clock. Following in a very short time, City Solicitor George E. Davidson, City Auditor Willis Davidson, City Treasurer Chris Horton and Councilman H. E. Moon took the oath.

By this time the city hall was thronged with interesting citizens and many were the conjectures as to the several appointments to be made by the mayor. And while all were whispering their thoughts John Wyman, whom the News Review predicted would get the appointment as chief of police, stepped into their midst, tarried a few moments among them, heard their varied guesses and then made his way into the office of Mayor Weaver, handed him an unimpeachable bond and stood waiting the orders of the chief executive. He was not kept long in suspense.

Mayor Weaver said: "Inasmuch as it becomes my duty to prevent the city from being without a chief of police until one is formally appointed by me, I will now appoint you, Mr. Wyman, temporary chief."

This ceremony was also followed by hearty handshaking, as was the one immediately after when Clinton Morley was sworn in as temporary chief of the fire department. The temporary appointing means without doubt that both Mr. Wyman and Mr. Morley will be permanently appointed as soon as sanctioned by council, and it is thought that both will receive the undivided support of every member of council at the first meeting to be held tonight.

It is thought by tonight every member of the municipal government, required to be sworn in will have taken the oath of office, that with the exception of the board of public safety, which Mayor Weaver states will not be appointed until after a conference with the new council.

CARPENTERS' DISPUTE IS FINALLY ADJUSTED

Men Returned to Work This Morning—Will Start the Eight Hour Day at 8 O'Clock in the Morning.

FAVORABLE STATUS IN OTHER TRADES

The carpenters' strike is settled. The action was taken at the conference held Saturday night between the bosses and a committee representing the union. The strike has been on since April 1. John Stewart, John D. Wiley, A. D. Cope and George B. M. Beatty were present in behalf of the union, and D. F. Nellis, Harvey McHenry, Robert Stevenson and Claude Nease acted for the contractors.

The meeting was a most harmonious one and the session was brief. The point which has kept the two sides apart was so trivial that both appreciated the wisdom of amicably move for settlement. The men had insisted upon an eight-hour day to begin at 7 o'clock in the morning, with seven hours on Saturday. The contractors objected to 7 o'clock as a starting point and wanted the hour fixed at 8 o'clock. They were also loath to grant the seven-hour day for Saturday. The settlement was effected by the men waiving the point as to the time for beginning work, fixing it at 8 o'clock and they will take but 50 minutes at noon in order that they may secure the short day on Saturday. In consideration of these concessions from the men the contractors gave up the point with reference to the completion of all old contracts at the old rate and conditions.

The carpenters' union had held a meeting previous to the conference and at that time the strike committee made its report covering the points

just outlined. It was stated that the contractors would settle on that basis, and after some little discussion the committee was authorized to accept the terms proposed.

All the interested parties and the public in general are highly gratified at the prospects for an immediate resumption of work by the carpenters, who have been idle for more than a month.

The committee that represented the journeymen's union in the conference with the contractors today gave out the following statement:

"The carpenters and contractors have adjusted their grievances on a satisfactory basis, and harmony prevails everywhere. All work will soon assume the former activity that has marked our progress for the past few years. It is understood that all carpenters can return to their former positions."

The teamsters' union is making remarkable headway in its canvass for signatures to the new scale of wages. Unlike any of the other trades who have had trouble this spring, it was necessary for the teamsters to see every team owner in the city individually in order to secure his signature. The boss team teamsters have no combination, and could not be reached through that method. In a sense this was an advantage to the men, since they could present their case through a committee without the necessity of

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus May 4.—The discovery has been made that the law providing for city equalization boards was not repealed by the code and that mayors may still appoint these boards when a request is not made by the county auditors for boards of review to the state board of assessors and appraisers. Several weeks ago Auditor of State Guilbert sent out a circular letter to county auditors advising them that it was their duty under the Longworth law to make application to the state board of assessors and appraisers for boards of review to take the place of city equalization boards, the letter indicating that the law providing for equalization boards had been repealed. Mr. Guilbert finds that he was mistaken, and that the law still stands.

Last winter Special Counsel Smith W. Bennett rendered an opinion which the state board of assessors and appraisers construed to mean that no valuations in cities could be equalized save by boards of review. Assuming this to be the case the board arranged to appoint boards for the 71 cities of the state. Bennett declares he never issued such an opinion, and both he and Attorney General Sheets admit that the equalization law has not been repealed, but hold it is unconstitutional.

The state board has decided not to take up the matter of appointing boards of review until furnished with a legal opinion concerning the status of the matter. Attorney General Sheets is now working on an opinion which will define their duty. The courts have held the Longworth board of review act to be valid. Governor Nash says that it was not the intention of the framers of the code to change the equalization law.

In an opinion rendered to Auditor of State Guilbert, General Sheets takes

a very advanced stand on the Dow law, and, in case his view of the statute is upheld by the courts, there will be a sudden falling off in the sale of many so-called "temperance drinks."

Some time ago the auditor of state notified the county auditors not to place persons selling "Bishop's beer," "Beal beer" and other liquids said to contain not over 2 per cent of alcohol, on the Dow tax lists.

Since this order was issued there has been a great increase in the number of places selling these drinks, and a falling off in the Dow tax.

The matter of the taxability of the traffic in these liquors was referred to the attorney general, and he now holds that the sale of all malt liquors, whether intoxicating or not, renders the seller liable for the payment of the Dow tax.

Heretofore it has been held that malt liquors to be taxable, must contain at least 2 per cent of alcohol, but the attorney general decides, from the language of the section of the law, that it was the intention of the legislature to tax the sale of all malt liquors.

ENGINE DERAILED BY A SIDEWIPER

A Railroad Accident Yesterday Which It Took Much Time to Remedy.

The Conway drag side-wiper a freight train in the local yards yesterday morning, and the engine of the former train was overturned.

Both trains had been on the siding to allow the passenger train due here at 10:05 to pass, and upon its departure both started for the main tracks at once. The firemen and engineers of both trains escaped injury by jumping. Neither of the trains was going at a rapid rate of speed, and it was difficult to understand how they could have come together with sufficient force to upset the engine.

The wreck train was summoned from Wellsview and the entire day was consumed in clearing away the wreckage.

Aged Man Insane.

Lisbon, May 4.—(Special.)—Harry Hestock, of Center township, aged 72, was adjudged insane in probate court Saturday afternoon and application made for admission to Massillon asylum. He has been living with Joseph Hill, a relative, a few miles from Lisbon. His hallucination made him dangerous.

THE NEW CHIEF'S DECLARATION

While in conversation with a News Reporter this afternoon Chief of Police John Wyman made a declaration that will meet with the hearty approval of every fair-minded resident of the city. He said:

"Everything that is done by me, or under my direction, will be for the best interests of the city. I intend to instruct my police officers to enforce every law as written in the ordinance book. Some people, I expect, will object, but that is not my lookout. It is a matter of business in carrying out the duties of a chief of police, and it will be on business principles that I will work. If exceptions are taken to the ordinances the grievances must be related to others than me. I am simply here to enforce them and I most assuredly will do so."

"I have not at the present time any changes in contemplation for the members of the force. There are some very good men among them and I anticipate no removals, at least for the present. It will be several days before everything is down in working order, but I think the police will readily understand exactly what I want and will do my bidding. I intend to have each officer live up to the rules that have been written governing them. They must report on the minute and after signing the report book they must get out and patrol their beats. The city hall will not be a loafing place for them. They are employed to work 12 hours and must do so. I expect there will be some change in the beats, but for the present they will remain the same."

Court Orders.

Lisbon, May 4.—(Special.)—Leave has been given the defendant to answer by May 29 in the case of J. C. Longshore against the W. J. Clark company, of Salem. The case of Harry Hughes against Charles W. Powell has been dismissed at plaintiff's cost without prejudice to a new action.

A HIGH HONOR FOR NEW MAYOR

Prohibitionists Propose W. A. Weaver As Gubernatorial Candidate.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus May 4.—A gubernatorial boom has been started for W. A. Weaver, East Liverpool's new Prohibition mayor. At a meeting of Prohibitionists at Martin's Ferry, W. W. Scott, of Bridgeport, a lumber dealer and leading worker of the Prohibition party, proposed Weaver for governor and the suggestion seemed to meet with general favor. It is urged that because of his being the only Prohibition mayor in the state Mr. Weaver is the logical candidate for governor.

State Chairman F. N. McCartney attended the Martin's Ferry conference which was a meeting of the committee of Belmont county and is of the opinion that Mr. Weaver's candidacy will receive general approval among the Prohibitionists of Ohio. Two other candidates are announced for governor, Rev. N. D. Creamer, of Columbus, and Rev. H. F. McLane, of Toledo. The former is a Methodist and the latter a Disciple minister.

Mr. Weaver has not defined his position to the leaders and they do not know whether he could be persuaded to accept the honor should it be tendered him.

Chairman McCartney has received notice from Secretary C. F. Bough, of the Columbiana county Prohibition committee, that the committee will meet in East Liverpool next Monday to select delegates to the state convention and decide whether or not to nominate a county ticket. McCartney will be present. He thinks the committee will put a ticket in the field. Scott, the Belmont county man who proposed Weaver for governor, may be a candidate for state treasurer, and E. M. Long, of Cadiz, is talked of as a candidate for auditor of state. These are the only Prohibitionists announced so far from eastern Ohio.

LIKELY TO DIE AS RESULT OF FALL

BARNEY MULRINE SUSTAINED BAD INTERNAL INJURIES.

Physicians Fear He May Not Survive Through the Coming Night.

As the result of an accident occurring on last Wednesday night, Barney Mulrine, a saloonist of West Market street, is momentarily expected to die. All of last night and the greater portion of today physicians were at his bedside, and it is feared that he will not survive the night.

Mr. Mulrine was descending the stairs at his home when he tripped and fell headlong to the floor below, sustaining internal injuries that have caused him much pain. He seems to be suffering from injuries over his entire body.

THE LAST HEARING FOR MAYOR DAVIDSON

Old Time Offenders Appeared Before His Honor Sunday Evening.

Charged with being drunk and disorderly, three of the Woolley family of the shantytown district were taken before Mayor W. C. Davidson last evening at about 9 o'clock. It was the last tribunal over which the retiring mayor officiated and one that brought fresh to his memory the characters of the wildest district of the city. Several weeks had elapsed since one of the shantytown people had been before him and he was believing that they had turned him down and were not going to give him a farewell visit.

Officers McDermott and Mahoney placed Joe Woolley and his two sons, Ralph and Frank, under arrest late in the afternoon while they were creating more disturbance on the beach that has been witnessed in many months. The trio were pretty drunk and were fighting among themselves and making life generally miserable for every one in hearing distance. The officers were summoned and had considerable difficulty in rounding up the bunch. Mahoney was the first on the scene and when Officer McDermott arrived he was on a box car trying to locate his family.

der arrest Joe interfered and said: "You can't take him unless you take me." He was accommodated, and Frank, making a similar objection, was also corralled. Ralph was fined $15.00 and Joe and Frank got off with $5.00 each.

"Zip" Farmer was released on Saturday night and he was very profuse in his thanks for the manner in which he had always been treated by Mayor Davidson. Another man was arrested Sunday morning. He paid his fine and when Mayor Weaver appeared at the city hall this morning there were only vacant cells awaiting him.

FOUND HIM CHASING HIS WIFE AROUND

A Columbiana Man on the Rampage Arrested, Jailed and Heavily Fined.

Lisbon, May 4.—(Special.)—J. O. Johnson, the Columbiana man who attempted suicide at New Waterford some time ago, was on a rampage in Columbiana last Friday, for which he was fined $50 and costs by Mayor Renkenberger, Saturday. Johnson was drinking Friday and that night he said to have threatened violence to his wife.

Marshal Haag and Officer Fisher were summoned, found the house locked, and Johnson engaged in the pastime of chasing his wife about the house. The officers broke in the door, and a struggle ensued in which Officer Fisher felled the desperate man with a mace. It required several men to take Johnson to jail. There he renewed the fight, assaulting Fisher and nearly overpowering him.

As this was not Johnson's first offense, Mayor Renkenberger warned him that another appearance in police court would mean a workhouse sentence.

Board of Public Service Will Take It Up At Its First Meeting.

Jacob Shenkel, member of the board of public service, stated this morning that a meeting of the board will likely be held this evening and that about the first business to be taken up by the board will be a thorough inspection of every street, alley and avenue in the city. He said that Pennsylvania avenue would be attended to at once and any other thoroughfares that are badly in need of improvement.

HOW THE RECORD STANDS

The number of votes recorded in the News Review prize contest on Saturday was quite up to the average. Many are already beginning to send in the new series of coupons, which is an example worthy of being followed by all. The contest, interesting from the start, will grow more so from this time on.

In order to economize space the News Review has decided hereafter to omit from the published list of candidates all person who have received less than 100 votes. A careful record will be kept of all votes cast, and as soon as any person's total reaches 100 the fact and the name will be announced. Any person interested desiring information about the scattering vote can obtain it from the record kept at this office.

The following candidates have up to date received 100 votes or more: The vote stands as follows: Thomas Neal, Riverside Park...18,319 Thomas Lowndes, Fourth street...11,982

WITH THE WORKMEN

PEORIA NOTES.

Peoria, May 2.—There is little change in the condition of trade at the Peoria plant. All departments are being operated a part of the time, but the clay hands are still loading a few days a pay.

Local union No. 27 held a very interesting meeting Tuesday evening. The delegates to the Wheeling convention were not instructed in the matter of who they were to support for national president, and the choice of the delegation will be left to the discretion of the individual members. T. J. Duffy is the favorite, and will doubtless receive the undivided support of the men from Peoria. Of the several candidates for national secretary so far mentioned in the News Review, P. J. McKeone is most favored. The members of local union No. 27 remember when Mr. McKeone was secretary in the early days of the Brotherhood, and they cannot forget his devotion to the cause and the sacrifices made by him both in the matter of time and money when the organization was not in a position to pay out money. At that time there was practically no money in the office and Mr. McKeone was compelled to attend to the duties of the position and work at his trade at the same time in order to make a living. In the light of these facts our delegates believe he should be honored with the office now that the position pays a salary sufficient to justify a man in devoting his entire time to it.

A FLESH FORMING FOOD

When you buy a package of Mio-na the great flesh-forming food and dyspepsia cure, weigh yourself and see how much you gain in the first week's use.

Druggist Will Reed will tell you of many of his customers who a month or so ago were thin, pale, haggard and dyspeptic, but who are now, through the use of Mio-na, plump, strong and happy, with perfect health and good digestion. He has seen so many instances of the wonderful power of Mio-na to restore the sick to health that he gives his personal guarantee with every package of Mio-na he sells to refund the money if the remedy does not prove satisfactory.

Mio-na is a purely vegetable preparation that can be used with absolute confidence by the most delicate. It gives remarkable results with children who are weak, run down and without appetite. It builds up the thin, pale, puny girl and woman to perfect plumpness and health. It is the only flesh-forming food of its kind, and in addition it strengthens the digestive organs, aids the food to digest, and makes complete and permanent cures of the worst cases of dyspepsia.

ROUTINE MEETINGS ONLY.

The meetings of several local unions in the city will undoubtedly be void of interest during the present week. All will meet, however, but little beyond the regular routine business will be transacted. For several weeks the members of the various unions connected with the Brotherhood have been busily engaged in the task of forming resolutions and giving instructions to their delegates. There are few trades in the organization which are not out for a change of some sort in the working conditions, and the delegates to the national convention at Wheeling this week have been instructed accordingly.

AMONG THE WORKERS.

Misses Camille O'Donald and Alice Bebout, finishers at the Union, are the guests of friends in Wheeling for the week.

Clarence Highfield, jiggerman at the Union, is still passing around the cigars over the arrival of a 10-pound baby at his home.

E. J. Owens, who was in town Sunday, says two biscuit kilns have been drawn at the Minerva plant with good results and that the first glost kiln will be placed this week.

Harney Williams, who has been employed as a kilnhand at the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles pottery for several months, has severed his connection with that concern and will leave in a few days for Salem.

TYPOGRAPHICAL UNION
HOLDS ITS ELECTION

Officers Chosen for Ensuing Year—An Eight-Hour Day for Job Printers.

At the regular May meeting of Typographical union No. 318 officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows:

President—Walter Playter.
Vice President—F. B. Martindale.
Secretary-Treasurer—Harry D. Arnold.

Recording Secretary—Crisis McConnell.

Sergeant-at-Arms—John Worcester.
Trustees—Charles Trescott, Fred Leach and F. P. Miles.

Delegates to International Typographical union convention at Washington, D. C.—F. Leslie Trump; alternate, R. D. McHenry.

Delegates to Allied Printing Trades Council—F. B. Martindale, Fred Irwin and F. P. Miles.

The committee appointed some time ago to form a scale to govern the job printing trade made a report recommending an amendment to section 10 of the regular scale of prices as follows: "Forty-eight hours constituting a week's work." This means simply the adoption of the eight-hour day in the job line. The newspaper departments have had the shorter day for several years.

The Wastes of the Body.

Every seven days the blood, muscles and bones of a man of average size lose two pounds of weight. This waste cannot be replenished and the health and strength kept up without perfect digestion. When the stomach and digestive organs fail to perform their functions, the strength lets down, health gives way, and disease sets in. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure enables the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all of the wholesome food that may be eaten into the kind of blood that rebuilds the tissue and protects the health and strength of the mind and body. Kodol cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. It is an ideal spring tonic. Sold by Alvin H. Bulger.

THE WEATHER.

Ohio—Fair and warmer; T. increasing cloudiness; fresh winds, becoming variable.
Western Pennsylvania—Fair day, fair except showers in northern; fresh west winds.
West Virginia—Fair; Tuesday warmer.

ANNIVERSARIES

Two Clergymen at the County Seat Who Have Had Long Pastors.

Lisbon, May 4.—(Special)—Rev. J. P. Anderson yesterday began his eleventh year as pastor of the Presbyterian church here. Incidentally he called attention to the fact that this is the centennial year of the local church, a congregation having been organized here almost simultaneously with the settlement of New Lisbon in 1803. The pulpit was supplied with ministers from Pittsburgh until 1807, when Rev. Vallandigham took charge.

Rev. George Fowler observed the fifth anniversary of his pastorate of the Christian church here yesterday morning. Twenty members have died since he assumed charge.

NEW SOCIAL CLUB

Has Been Organized And Will Occupy the Rooms of the Old Sirius Club.

A new social club has been organized in the city, the membership of which is made up of young men from East Liverpool's smartest society set. The organization will be known as "The Holland Club," and will be chartered under the state law. Officers were elected yesterday as follows: President, Frank Lowe; vice president, Clyde Huse; secretary, A. G. Hynes; financial secretary, Ralph Shive; treasurer, Gaylor Albright; trustees, Chris Metz, James Stanley and George Rigby.

The new society starts off with a membership of nearly 25, and the rooms of the old Sirius club have been rented and will be elaborately furnished at once. A committee has been appointed to arrange for a reception and banquet to be held some time the latter part of the month.

NEW RAILROAD
MAY NOT COME

Jones & Laughlin Line Projected to the Lakes Is Likely to Be Abandoned.

With the Coal Trust Whereby the Big Steel Firm Will Turn Over Its Business to the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie.

Cleveland, May 4.—Jones & Laughlin, the big steel company of Pittsburgh, have abandoned their intention to build a railroad to Lake Erie. This rumor is around in high financial circles.

The Pittsburgh Coal company has abandoned its intention of building south of Youngstown and it is said that arrangements will be made with the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie railroad for the Pittsburgh entrance.

These two rumors, which are well founded, stirred up railroad circles very much. The Jones & Laughlin line was expected to become one of the powerful factors in the situation and was to have been rushed through. The port has been purchased at Meritor Marsh, the lake terminal; the right of way had been obtained through to Pittsburgh, and the Cleveland terminals had been arranged for. This big independent steel concern wanted to be on a parity with the other steel makers and own its means of transporting the raw material and was going to build a railroad. The route surveyed was impossible. It would cross four summits, each of which had a grade approaching the summit of two per cent. This is the maximum for steam railroads, and on such a grade material cannot be carried cheaply. The other ore carriers would be using the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie and the French lines alongside of the Jones & Laughlin line, with a maximum grade of three-tenths of 1 per cent. The steel company decided to abandon its project and it is understood will make other arrangements. The cost of carrying the material was too great.

The Pittsburgh Coal company is getting around its project in another way. That company did not want to be engaged to carry out its project of building a railroad if the end could be obtained in some other way. What the coal trust wanted was terms, and it matter little how they came. It seems that the coal company owns the West Side Belt line at Pittsburgh, a very important piece of railroad. It has connection with some of the best factory districts and turns out an immense amount of tonnage in a year. The rumor now is that the Pittsburgh Coal company will turn this into a combination between the P. & L. E. and the proposed road of the Pittsburgh Coal company, and that the latter will agree not to build between Youngstown and Pittsburgh, but will give its business for that direction to the P. & L. E.

This is one of the strongest combinations that could have been made. It is rather distressing to the other carriers in this territory and has a big influence on the business through the coal ports. It seems that the Pittsburgh Coal company has continued in its decision to build the road from Youngstown to Meritor Marsh and there construct its coal docks for the handling of a good portion of its lake business. The Pittsburgh Coal company is what is known as the coal trust of the lake shipping section of the Pittsburgh district. It practically controls all of the coal that comes out of the Pittsburgh district, having only one competitor to date of any consequence. The deal which is about to be put through is one of the first magnitude. Taken with the announcement that the Jones & Laughlin company intends to abandon its project to build to the lakes from the Pittsburgh district, the development is most important and clears the air remarkably.

LUTHERAN CONFERENCE
AT ROCHESTER TODAY

Many Interesting Church Topics Will Be Discussed By Ministers.

Rev. J. G. Reinartz, pastor of St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church of this city, left this morning for Rochester, Pa., where he will attend the 85th convention of the Middle conference, Pittsburgh synod, of the Lutheran church. The meeting is being held in St. Paul's church, Rochester, and the first session was held this afternoon. The convention will last until tomorrow evening. The program follows:

STRONG EVIDENCE OF FAITH

Will Reed Guarantees That Hyomei Will Cure the Worst Cases of Catarrh in East Liverpool.

When one of the most reputable concerns in East Liverpool guarantees that a medicine will effect a cure or he will return the money, it speaks volumes as to the merits of the remedy. It is in this way that Will Reed is selling Hyomei, the treatment that has made the many remarkable cures of both acute and chronic cases of catarrh in East Liverpool and vicinity.

Hyomei is not a pill nor is it a liquid that has to be taken with a tablespoon or wine glass. Just breathe it in by the aid of an inhaler that comes in every outfit and benefit will be seen from the first treatment.

It destroys all germ life in the passages and lungs and enriches and purifies the blood with additional ozone. It cures catarrh of the head and throat, or of the stomach, liver and kidneys. Wherever mucous membrane contains catarrhal germs, there Hyomei will do its work of healing. When using this treatment the air you breathe will be found like that on the mountain high above the sea level where grow balsamic trees and plants which made the air pure by giving off volatile antiseptic fragrance that is healing to the respiratory organs.

Tuesday, 2 p. m.—Devotions, led by the Rev. H. S. Gilbert; "The Church—Hindrances to Its Prosperity"—(a) From Within, the Rev. G. S. Seaman; (b) From Without, the Rev. D. L. Roth, D. D.

Wednesday, 9 a. m.—Matins, read by the Rev. R. G. Rosenbaum; business of conference; essay, "Extemporaneous Preaching vs. Written Sermon—Which?" the Rev. T. S. Brown; speaker, the Rev. W. H. Fehr; essay, "The Illustrative Element in Preaching," the Rev. D. H. Geissinger, D. D.; speaker, the Rev. D. M. Kemerer.

The X-Rays.

Recent experiments, by practical tests and examination with the aid of the X-Rays, establish it as a fact that catarrh of the stomach is not a disease of itself, but that it results from repeated attacks of indigestion. "How can I cure my indigestion?" Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is curing thousands. It will cure you of indigestion and dyspepsia, and prevent or cure catarrh of the stomach. Kodol digests what you eat—makes the stomach sweet. Sold by Alvin H. Bulger.

Paving the Public Square.

Lisbon, May 4.—(Special)—Work will be commenced in a few days on the paving of the section of street above the northeast corner of the public square, with the completion of which the entire square will be paved. The property owners about the square will bear the whole expense, about $2,000. C. S. Speaker has bought the bonds for the amount.

A Prisoner in Her House.

Mrs. W. H. Layha, of 1001 Agnes avenue, Kansas City, Mo., has for several years been troubled with severe hoarseness and at times a hard cough, which she says, "Would keep me in doors for days. I was prescribed for by physicians with no noticeable results. A friend gave me a part of a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with instructions to closely follow the directions and I wish to state that after the first day I could notice a decided change for the better, and at this time after using it for two weeks, have no hesitation in saying I realize that I am entirely cured. From this time on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will be to my house constantly." This remedy is for sale by Alvin H. Bulger.

EAST END

EIGHTY-FIVE YEARS OLD.

Wellsville Woman Surprised On Her Birthday By Relatives From This City.

Relatives to the number of 50, including the children, grandchildren and great grandchildren of Mrs. Mary Dillon surprised her at the residence of her son, Aaron Dillon, of Wellsville. The occasion was the eighty-fifth anniversary of the lady. The party from the East End went in a body and were joined at other points along the car line by numerous other relatives. The day was pleasantly spent by those present and were royally entertained by Grandma Dillon, who is enjoying the best of health.

A SECOND OPERATION

Necessary in the Case of a Woman Who Badly Injured Her Hand.

Dr. W. M. Calhoun went to Wellsville today, to be present at an operation which will be performed on his sister, Mrs. H. C. Aughrinbaugh, who recently inflicted an injury to her hand with a cleaver, while engaged in cutting meat. At the time Mrs. Aughrinbaugh cut her hand the wound was not considered dangerous, but did not heal very rapidly, and the hand was operated on. Last week Mrs. Aughrinbaugh's arm commenced to swell, causing her great pain and the danger of blood poisoning setting in was feared, making a second operation necessary.

The attending physicians and the many friends of the lady are hoping that serious results will not follow.

Pipe Laying Finished.

The merchants of Mulberry street are gratified to know that the work of putting in the new water pipes will be finished some time today. The pipes have been scattered about the street since last winter, and now that they are underground the street will be in much better shape. The force of men of the water department who have been engaged in doing this work will go from the East End to Brun's pottery, where much work will be done.

Expect to Find Oil.

The Rock Run Oil and Gas company on Saturday let the contract for the first well of six that will be drilled on their leases at Knoxville. An Allegheny concern will do the drilling. The well of Harrison Rinehart at Knoxville has shown good indications as far as it has been drilled and is expected in today.

Has Bought a Store.

Rev. J. W. Howard, of the Free Methodist denomination, has purchased the store of Alex. Chafin, of Erie street, and will continue at the same stand. Mr. Chafin and family will move this week to the James West farm, one and one-half miles out from Calcutta, which he purchased some time ago.

EAST END AFFAIRS.

Mort Calhoun spent Sunday visiting relatives at Fairview, W. Va. Mrs. Cal Price, of St. George street, left this morning on a business trip at Mechanicsstown.

Edward McAfee is very ill at his home on Ohio avenue, threatened with an attack of fever.

A fine baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. George Clendinning, of Oakland, on Saturday morning.

Mrs. Wade Wolfe, of First avenue, lies dangerously ill of typhoid fever. Last night Mrs. Wolfe was delirious and her friends are much alarmed at her condition.

S. L. Polen, who has been ill at his home in Wellsville for the past five weeks with typhoid fever, is steadily improving and hopes to be able to return to work the latter part of the week.

Miss Blanche Mowen, of Pennsylvania avenue, has been confined to the house the past few days, very ill. Her condition shows but little signs of improvement and it is feared that typhoid fever may develop.

THE NEW ACTS OF THE APOSTLES

The spacious auditorium of the First M. E. church was filled to its capacity at both the morning and evening service yesterday and as usual beautiful music and able sermons were highly enjoyed by everyone present. The pastor, Dr. Pratt, was somewhat fatigued as the result of his strenuous labors during the past few months but he seemingly cast aside all signs of weariness and in his characteristic manner preached with the same vigor and enthusiasm that has endeared him so conspicuously to his large congregation.

In the evening Dr. Pratt chose as his subject, "The New Acts of the Apostles." It was founded on the 42d and 43d verses of the second chapter of the Acts, "And they continued steadfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers. And fear came upon every soul; and many wonders and signs were done by the apostles." In part he said:

"This great book of the Acts began by a statement of the wonderful things that Christ had done; of his marvelous teachings and his wonderful life. It closes with the story of Paul dwelling in his own house and preaching for two years the grand lessons of Jesus. He preached the kingdom of God and taught those things which concern the Lord Jesus, with all confidence, no man forbidding him."

"Since then the church has been writing its own acts of apostles. The apostles of today are not to be compared with those of that generation. Though in the days of Christ and of Paul the apostolic writers were endowed with power and the spirit from an apparent giver it must not be accepted now that there are none living who are not possessed of the same gifts and inspiration. One of the greatest apostolic writers of the present age is Father Coburn and the ages and eras considered no writer of the apostolic epoch was more able or more eminently qualified for the work. Men, it seems, have been hitherto afraid to write on the teachings and beautiful lessons of the Bible. They seem to fear their capability, thinking themselves unable to define the laws of God in a manner acceptable. In these fears they are wrong, for the same God that put his hand on holy men of ancient times puts his hand on the righteous men of today. He places in their hearts the same spirit and principle."

"While we are to get much from the life of Christ as portrayed by the apostolic writings, we must not forget or neglect the writings and teachings of the inspired ones of today. If the Bible were destroyed, completely obliterated, we would not long be without a book of equal greatness. Our great men of today, those whose very hearts and souls are bubbling over with the spirit of God would write a book that would save the entire world. Jesus would come to earth and cry again, 'I would suffer and die for him, well pleased!' The God that led the first church is ready to lead the church of today. There is not a soul goes forth less sanctified, less ordained, less supervised or less appointed than was bestowed upon Paul."

"Come thou day of socialism, if it be of a Christian nature. We need a reproduction of the apostolic era when everything was hallowed together and used for the salvation of Jesus Christ. The time is soon to come when the people of the world will carry the riches and put it altogether for the grand and noble purpose of planting religion in the uttermost parts of the universe, to the people who know not the love of God."

"God is the same always. He is the same at our wedding feasts, at our enjoyments, and our weepings. He is as thoughtful and interested in us as in those of old. There are men among us over whom he is bending and urging to go forth and do as did the apostles. He will support them. He will endow them with the radiant love and triumphant glory possessed by the apostles. Let us go forth as did they, resistless, and come back as triumphant! This is a day of continued apostolic work and it is now the duty to preach the love and greatness of Christ from pulpits in every country of the known world."

CHRIST'S SUFFERING FOR THE WORLD

Theme of An Eloquent Sermon By Rev. W. M. Hamilton at Presbyterian Church.

Rev. Wallace M. Hamilton, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Coshocton, occupied the pulpit at the First church here yesterday both morning and evening. He is an able speaker, and both discourses were attended by large congregations and were thoroughly enjoyed.

Rev. Mr. Hamilton took for his text the fifth verse of the fifty-third chapter of Isaiah: "But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities; the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed."

The suffering of God through Jesus Christ for the salvation of the world was the theme taken up by the speaker. The deliverance of the children of Israel was touched upon as an illustration of the reality of vicarious suffering. The Israelites endured many tribulations and suffered much for the sins of their fathers. The prophet draws a vivid picture of the vicarious suffering of God, a picture that is answered only in Jesus Christ, the light of the world.

The scripture is the law that holds the world together. The truth of vicarious suffering has long been established, even though it appears perplexing to many. Is it right that I should suffer for the sins of another? No man has ever stood firm under the many temptations which we meet in every day life that he did not aid a score of others. No man ever fell that he did not take a score of others with him.

Vicarious suffering holds us close together. Our civilization has only been possible through vicarious suffering, and that which ought to keep you and me from sin is the fact that God suffers because we are not more willing to see the right. Vicarious suffering is greater than the real suffering of the world. It is not suffering of moral or religious origin, but the suffering of daily life. No one has ever risen to his full height that has not born the trials and sufferings of others. This is not sentiment, but the truth of God himself. It is the suffering of God through Christ that made the transformation of the world possible.

In conclusion the speaker said: "May God today mould your lives that they may be free from sin. May we realize that God suffers for our sins through Christ. God bears all our sins willingly that He may have the honor

ONE OF THE DEADLY SINS IS THAT OF GAMBLING

Rev. Edwin Weary Condemns the Practice As a Crime Before God and Man.

Rev. Edwin Weary, rector of St. Stephen's Episcopal church, preached to a large and appreciative audience last evening on the subject, "The Sin of Gambling." It was a very interesting theme and the rector was given undivided attention throughout his discourse. He said in part:

"It is asserted that it is not a sin to gamble. I say that it is. Is there a man imbued with a Christian spirit, the love of God, that seeks the companionship of the gambler? I don't think there is. Such are always seen to be seeking the intimacy of those of good standing. Gambling is not sportsmanlike because it spoils the cleanliness of all legitimate sports; it is not gentlemanly, for no true gentleman will gamble. I will not condemn sports by classing gambling among them. Sports, when they test the brawn, skill and strength of true manhood, are legitimate and worthy a place in the pursuits of men; when gambling enters into the sport, whatever it may be, it robs the game of its cleanliness."

"Gambling forms one of the deadly sins and is placed under the head of covetousness. It is a pursuit found only among the low men for the possession of the illegitimate dollar. Betting is one of the lusts of the flesh. It is deteriorating to character, not elevating. Betting is illegitimate interest because it is obtaining money under false pretense."

"Gambling is a crime before man and God as is shown by its results. The statistics show that out of the vast army of mortals inclosed in our penitentiaries most of them are embezzlers, they have committed the crime on account of the obligations caused by gambling. The greater number of suicides are also caused by gambling and the entire category of the criminology will reveal the fact that gambling is the direct or indirect cause of crime in its multitudinous forms."

Sermons On Faith.

At the First Christian church yesterday the pastor, Rev. J. W. Gorrell, preached two extremely interesting and inspiring sermons to his usually large congregations. In the morning he preached on the subject, "Work, the Test of Faith," and in the evening on "The Noblest Men are Nothing When Trust Gives Way to Despair." He spoke of the need man has of implicit trust in the Lord. A really noble man was such because he trusted and when his trust gave way and was exceeded by despair, his character gave way also and he was nothing in comparison with his former self.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET.

Senator, first term—C. C. CONNELL.
Representative, second term—D. W. CLIST.
Representative, first term—ELI'AH W. HILL.
Prosecuting Attorney—M. J. M'GARRY.
Sheriff—A. J. JOHNSON.
Treasurer—W. A. THOMPSON.
Comptroller—ROBERT C. BOYD.
Infirmary Director—TH. M'ASKELLY.
Coroner—D. J. JOHNS.

Mayor W. A. Weaver has now entered upon the duties of the office to which he was elected. A new law has gone into effect, by which the duties and responsibilities of the office of mayor are greatly increased. And a mayor who had a conscience and a keen sense of responsibility had no light task before. Moreover, East Liverpool has grown rapidly and each succeeding mayor, even under the old law, has found his work increasing all the time. Mayor Weaver, though without previous experience in official life, brings to his new position the ripe judgment of mature years and the knowledge of men and affairs gained in a long and successful business career. The people are looking to him, as they have a right to do, for a business administration, and, regardless of party politics, will second all his efforts in that direction. There will be no disposition on the part of any loyal citizen to place obstacles in his way; on the other hand, the public will gladly lend him assistance in its power to make his administration a success in the true sense of the word, through the equitable enforcement of the laws and the advancement of best interests of the city. And the press will gladly co-operate.

The convention of the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters meets at Wheeling under unusually favorable auspices. Not only is the Brotherhood larger than ever, but so far as is apparent to an outsider, complete harmony exists throughout its membership. There is no disagreement between the East and West, and the problem of choosing a successor to President Hughes will be decided regardless of sectional lines. No grave questions that affect the trade are likely to arise that cannot be amicably settled. The pottery workers as a whole are a busy body of men just at present and will doubtless take no steps calculated to disturb the harmonious relations existing between themselves and their employers. East Liverpool, deeply interested in the present convention, hopes most sincerely that good will and the best interests of all concerned, may guide the delegates in their deliberations.

The carpenters and the contractors are to be congratulated, and the public also, upon the settlement of the differences upon which a disagreement has existed for more than a month. Although, owing to the fact that a considerable number of the contractors signed the scale soon after it was presented, there has been no complete tie-up of building operations, the fact that a strike condition existed has seriously retarded many projects of importance. Now that the last vestige of a strike in this important trade has disappeared and that all the other labor disputes are either settled or in a fair way to be adjusted speedily, there is nothing in the way of the present reason being one of the busiest ever experienced in the building trades of East Liverpool. The city needs all the new houses that are likely to be built during the coming summer and more besides. Let the good work proceed.

The hospital association is to be congratulated on another donation. It can use many more of the same sort, and in a period of prosperity like the present ought not to be handicapped for lack of funds. It is not to the credit of East Liverpool that neighboring cities with far less wealth and population than our own have finely equipped hospitals, while the unfortunate stranger within our gates, if sick or the victim of an accident, has no place to which he may demand admission, and must look out for himself however enfeebled his condition. The sooner this city can remedy all this the more creditable it will be to her reputation and the more satisfactory to all persons of humane feelings.

Mayor Davidson retires from office a more popular man than when he entered it. This is saying a good deal, considering the duties he has fulfilled and the difficulties he has encountered during the past three years, and considering the fact that he was a very popular man to start with. He has made few enemies and a great many friends while holding the office of mayor, and the good will and good wishes of all whose friendship is worth having follow him upon his retirement to private life.

American farmers are such successful wheat growers that 56 per cent of the crop goes abroad. England alone paid $67,000,000 for American wheat in 1901. The present prospect is that our wheat harvest of 1903 will be a record breaker.

Out in Missouri they are talking of a Dockery presidential boom. Mr. Dockery seems to have many good points, but they say he eats pie with a knife.

Hetty Green says every woman ought to know how to keep house. Almost any woman with Hetty's money would know how to do it.

street, aged 72, widow of the late Samuel Ridinger, died at her home this morning at 7 o'clock after an illness of nearly two months. She had, however, been confined to her bed but ten days. Funeral services will be held at the home Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. C. G. Jordan officiating. Interment will be made in Riverview cemetery.

Mrs. Ridinger was a life-long resident of Columbiana county and lived in the house in which she died for 36 years, moving to the city from Wellsville. She was a faithful and consistent member of the First Presbyterian church. Five grandchildren, a sister, Mrs. Nancy Dishong, and two daughters, Mrs. Rachel B. Loomis, at home, and Mrs. Anna Trenle, Lincoln avenue, are her survivors.

Mrs. James Parker.

Mrs. James Parker, of Calhoun's addition, 46 years of age, died at her home Saturday afternoon after an illness of over a year's duration. The cause of Mrs. Parker's death was cancer of the stomach. She took very ill about ten days ago and gradually grew worse. She is survived by her husband and six children, Mrs. Alf. McKinnon, Margaret, Robert, James, Annie and Ruth, all of whom reside in the East End. The funeral will take place from the family residence on Wednesday. Rev. G. W. Orcutt will officiate at the funeral ceremony and the burial will take place at Wellsville, the former home of Mrs. Parker.

Mrs. Nancy Sloan.

Mrs. Nancy Sloan, mother of Dr. William J. Sloan, died at his home on Fifth street Saturday evening from the infirmities of old age, she being nearly 90 years old. Mrs. Sloan previously resided in Allegheny, making her home with her daughter-in-law. She had been a resident of this city about two years and was highly respected and esteemed by all. Dr. Sloan is the only surviving member of the family, Mrs. Sloan's husband having died several years ago. The remains were taken to Allegheny this morning, where funeral services were held this afternoon. Rev. Mr. Milligan officiating.

Charles Miller.

Charles Miller, aged 35, died at his home in the East End Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, after a two weeks' illness with typhoid pneumonia. The funeral will be conducted at the home tomorrow afternoon by Rev. J. G. Reinartz, pastor of St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church. Burial will follow in Spring Grove cemetery. Mr. Miller was well known in the city as an honest and industrious baker. He was last in the employment of Andrew Galm. A wife and four small children, together with a mother, sister and brother, survive.

Homer Eggs.

Homer, the 8-year-old son of L. S. Eggs, of Second street, succumbed to an attack of heart disease at noon today. The boy had been ill since last winter and was thought fairly on the road to recovery, and his death came as a surprise. Funeral arrangements have not as yet been made.

Charles Starkey.

Charles, aged 2 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Starkey, of Avondale street and Bradshaw avenue, died early Sunday morning after a long illness. The father is employed at the C. & P. freight depot. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon.

Don't fool with a cold; no one can tell what the end may be. Pneumonia, catarrh, chronic bronchitis and consumption invariably result from neglected colds. Nothing can be compared with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as a quick cure for colds and influenza, and by its use these diseases may be avoided. For sale by Alvin H. Bulger.

The Holland Brush is made of metal, beautifully nickel-plated, the body and teeth of same being hollow, admitting of boiling water, and will dry a lady's hair, after washing in a very few minutes after passing the brush through the hair as you would an ordinary comb or brush, leaving the hair soft and fluffy. In the old way it takes hours to do the same and always with the danger of contracting a cold. It is indispensable where there are children. The Holland Brush will last a life time.

The average theatrical manager of the present is so intent upon devising novelties to please the sated public that he too often overlooks the opportunities which are furnished by the older sort of dramas and melodramas. It is one of the most inspiring signs of the times, however, that the people are gradually abandoning the hackneyed farce comedies and the variety shows without variety for the good old-fashioned plays in which heart interest predominates. Proof of this statement is found in the fact that one of the greatest successes of recent years has been achieved this season by a melodrama in which love is the pervading sentiment. The title of the play is "For Her Sake," and the story deals with life in Russia and Siberia. The Carpenter company, who have the piece under their management, have spared no labor or expense upon it and have succeeded in producing a melodrama which is without doubt superior to the average of its kind. "For Her Sake" will be seen at the Grand, Thursday evening, May 7.

"As You Like It" is seldom as you like it. It is generally as you don't like it, can't like it as you can't like it if you wanted to; as you have no business to like it if you have any regard for the pieties, the correctness, then the respectabilities of the stage. Ernest Shipman doesn't ask much of our town. He asks you to come and see a Shakespearean play because he guarantees it shall be played. He affirms that for years his star, Miss Alberta Gallatin, has been accepted as an actress who can and will act Rosalind and he has not imputed his actress by surrounding her with anything but people who know their business, and a set of scenes that Shakespeare ordered and that he Shipman, has bought, paid for, and carries. Wednesday evening, May 6 at the Grand.

The St. Louis Globe says: "My Friend From India," which was presented at the Metropolitan last night is the funniest conceit witnessed upon the local stage. To enumerate the succession of ludicrous situations would not begin to do justice to the force and its author, H. A. DuSouchet. The amusing complexities and predicaments are unexpected, and, in consequence, all the more effective, as anticipation does not dull the enjoyment of the actual scene. This merry farce will be presented here on next Tuesday evening, May 5.

"The Sign of the Cross," with all the original company, scenery, costumes and properties, will be welcome news for all those that have seen this great religious drama or those that only have heard of its great reputation. Over forty actors and two car loads of scenery are carried with the company.

We have the finest line of boys' and children's suits in the city. Prices 25 per cent less than others.

There are over 100 team owners in the city and the task which confronted the officers when the movement began was not an easy one. To the present every owner of a team in the city has been seen and all but eight of them have signed the agreement to pay the $2 per day and grant nine hours. Four of the eight still remaining out are equal men, and are not making a fight against the demands of the drivers. It is thought the entire matter will have been closed up by the end of the week.

No change has been noted in the situation of the painters in their strike for an eight-hour day and an advance in wages. The master painters have agreed to compromise on a basis of eight hours at the old rate of wages and state they will not yield another point under any circumstances. On the other hand the journeymen are just as firm in their determination to stand out for their original demands, and will accept no compromise. The workmen are all employed at present, but the bosses think when the work now on hand has

It is possible the plumbers' strike may be settled this afternoon between the two parties to the controversy, and if the journeymen can see their way clear to make a small concession, the strike can be settled at once.

The union had asked for an eight-hour day and seven hours on Saturday, the wages to remain the same as heretofore—$4 per day. The master plumbers asked that the wages be fixed at $3.60 per day for a 48-hour week. No progress has been made toward a settlement, as the journeymen plumbers would not entertain the proposition made by their employers. It is said the bosses have a new suggestion to offer at the meeting this afternoon, and it may be that the men will accept.

WELLSVILLE

Enters Upon Its Duties Today—The Auditorship Important.

The city government starts today under the new municipal code and Charles R. McGregor, Jr., auditor-elect, takes his office in Wellsville. This office is one of the most important on the list and the city is considered fortunate in securing so competent and capable a man for the place. The business of this position is to look after the city's accounts and no bill, however small, can be paid until it has passed his close inspection.

This additional office will take considerable time and trouble from the councilmen, as heretofore all bills were approved by council. A new check system will be in vogue under the new arrangement and every department of the city will be separate. This will enable him to tell without a search the correct condition of all funds.

Mr. McGregor was in Cleveland some time ago to receive instructions relative to his duties and is now ready to enter the work with a clear understanding of all points connected with his position.

No arrangements have yet been made for an office and he will still continue in his old office at Fourth and Main streets, where he has had his law office.

MEETS TO ORGANIZE

First Session of New City Council of Wellsville Tonight.

The new Wellsville council will hold its first meeting this evening. Under the new code the council is composed of eight members instead of 10. The new members are: A. B. Crubaugh, president; William A. O'Grady, Frank C. Blackburn, D. E. McDonald, Robert Anderson, C. V. Shoub, James Bissett and J. A. Joseph.

The chief business of this session will be reorganization and an explanation of the duties of the council under the code. Should these things not take up too much time some other important questions, which were left unsettled by the old members, will, no doubt, receive some discussion.

The improvements and finance committees will not be necessary in the new council, as the board of public service takes the place of the improvement committee and the auditor will, in a measure, fill the finance committee's place. Some of the business which has been so long neglected by the old board will be the first things accomplished, especially the removal of the water works office to enable the postoffice room to be enlarged and free mail delivery established without delay.

Water Works Superintendent.

The board of public service after taking the oath of office this morning held a meeting and appointed the following officials: C. E. Ewing, superintendent of water works, salary $1,000, bond $500; H. W. Sinclair, clerk, salary $60 per month; J. G. Stewart, cemetery sexton, salary $50 per month; Alexander Culp, supervisor of highways, salary $2 per day.

MORE PETITIONS

FOR DIVORCE

FAIRFIELD TOWNSHIP MAN SAYS WIFE LEFT HIM.

An East Palestine Wife Makes Serious Charges Against Her husband.

Lisbon, May 4.—(Special)—Two more divorce petitions have been filed.

George H. Lower, of Fairfield township, seeks a divorce from Cora Lower. The petition says they were married June 11, 1896, in Fairfield township, and have no children. The plaintiff charges wilful absence and gross neglect in refusing to live with him for more than three years. Judge J. G. Moore is the plaintiff's attorney.

Anna M. Burt, of East Palestine, to whom the court some time ago refused a divorce, is plaintiff against W. J. Burt, in a new petition. They were married February 22, 1891, in Allegheny, Pa. Of three children born to them, one, Raymond S., survives, aged 7. Mrs. Burt charges unfaithfulness and failure to provide.

Their troubles commenced when they were living in Niles in 1899, the wife learning that her husband was having clandestine meetings with other women. This led to their separation, the husband remaining in Niles and the wife going to East Palestine. A reconciliation was effected, but the wife left him finally in July 1909, on account of alleged continued unfaithfulness. She has since supported herself and child. Her husband is a skilled machinist and earns from $125 to $175 per month. The wife says her husband was unfaithful at the Franklin hotel in Cleveland January 1, 1909, and at the Harney house in Warren, June 8, 1909. As the defendant has considerable property, the wife asks alimony and the custody of her child, Everett L. Lyon, of East Palestine, is her attorney.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM SUDDEN DEATH

Mrs. Molly Shay And Son Thrown from a Buggy in a Runaway.

Mrs. Mollie Shay and son Walter, 17 years of age, of Fairview, had a miraculous escape from death at 10 o'clock this morning. They were on their way to East Liverpool and at a point near the Locust Hill cemetery, on the Fairview road, the horse, a spirited one, becoming frightened at a loose strap which kept striking him about the legs, started off at a rapid gait. The road is very steep and the horse was unmanageable.

Mrs. Shay and her son were thrown out, their rig colliding with that of a party on the way to the funeral of Mrs. John P. Miller at Gas Valley. Mrs. Shay was badly bruised, but the boy was unhurt.

PARSONAGE BOUGHT

Chester U. P. Church Makes Valuable Addition To Its Property.

A deal was closed Saturday evening by the trustees of the U. P. church, which will enhance the value of the church of that denomination by the purchase of the property of Joseph R. Hough on Carolina avenue. The purchase price of the property is $3,051 and it will be used as a parsonage. This will give the church a very desirable frontage of 108 feet on the avenue.

TROUBLE AT A-BALL GAME

Resulted in the Arrest of Umpire and One Spectator.

But for the presence of Chief Allison at the game of ball between teams of Crookery City and Chester Saturday afternoon a general melee would have resulted. The game was hotly contested, the services of six different umpires was found necessary before the game was through with, which resulted in a score of 18 to 12 in favor of the Chester team. Toward the close of the game the pitcher of the Chester team, Harvey Cullen, took exception to a decision of "Noodles" Rusby, the umpire, and stated his intention of quitting the game. "Noodles" did not like the idea of his rulings being questioned and walked toward Cullen and struck him a terrific blow in the face. Alvin, an older brother of Cullen, resented the striking of his brother by a much larger man and knocked Rusby down.

Chief Allison then took a hand in the affray and placed the elder Cullen and Rusby under arrest after separating them and conducted them before Squire Johnston, who fined Cullen $5.00 and Rusby $9.00 for their fun.

Rusby for the use of profane language narrowly escaped a jail sentence and received a scolding from the justice, but was released by the payment of his fine by his friends.

RELIEVED OF $45

William Nelson Lost a Large Roll While Sleeping Out Of Doors.

William Nelson was relieved of about $45 while he peacefully slumbered on the platform in front of a store on Carolina avenue near the park Saturday night, about 11 o'clock. Nelson had considerable money early in the evening, and got separated from it, returning to Chester shortly before the rest was taken from him. A number of his friends tried to get his watch and money from him for safe keeping, with only partial success.

Nelson turned over his gold watch to Richard Banfield, who also wanted to care for his money, but Nelson would not give it up. Little time elapsed ere Nelson and his pay envelope was transferred to hands more appreciative.

CHESTER NOTES.

Edward Stewart was in Chester from New Cumberland on Saturday.

Miss Ruth Baxter, teacher of the Chester schools, spent Sunday with friends at Fairview.

C. T. McCutcheon has just installed a fine new cash register in his drug store on Virginia avenue.

Miss Jane Stewart was compelled to leave her work as teacher in the Chester schools on account of an attack of tonsillitis. She is quite ill.

It is said the deal for coal land near New Cumberland will be closed by F. E. McElfresh within the next few weeks. The land embraces between 2,000 and 3,000 acres, and the price to be paid is something like $600,000.

Nature hid one of her greatest blessings in the liver of a fish, but practically prohibited its use by the nauseating grease and fishy flavor. Science has now extracted this good without the grease, and presented it to suffering humanity in the form of Hagee's Cordial of Cod Liver Oil.

LEETSDALE LOST

They Came Expecting a Shutout
and Went Wild Over the Scoring of Two Runs.

Of Stage Fright And Played a Game
That Caused His Immediate Release—Tommy Davis Was There
With the Goods And Won the Game.

It isn't very often that a defeated base ball team leaves a diamond in good spirits, and until Saturday afternoon an aggregation of that kind of people never played in the West End park. Notwithstanding that they had lost the game the Leedsdale boys trailed from the park with colors flying and gloriously triumphant. They had made two runs, in spite of the fact that they had anticipated nothing short of a shutout. The fans of their own town wagged 20 to 5 that they would not score a run. No wonder, is it, that they were so joyful.

When they boarded the evening train for home all were singing "We Got Ours, Boys; You Got Yours." They know their speed now and no more will be backward in challenging teams of the Pittsburgh district. It will only be necessary for their corresponding secretary to write: "We are not particular about a game, but if you people want to play us, who diverted a shutout when we were up against East Liverpool, we will accommodate you." If Tommy Davis had become suddenly sick at about 4 o'clock no doubt the visitors would have had even a better story to tell upon their arrival home. It was Tommy and Tommy alone who won the game for the locals. He played the best game of his life, one that is not witnessed every day and his record, two runs, two singles, a three-bagger, two put outs and three assists was the big feature of the game. How he managed to do it under the circumstances will never be known. He must have just forgotten all about Walton or perhaps it was through sympathy for the Martin's Ferry man that he so exerted himself.

It really was a good thing for the locals that some one did not fall down simply because Walton did. He certainly "put the bug" on Harker, and as a result the latter came dangerously near fitting himself for the fire. Walton is gone now. On the morning train yesterday he departed and no one but himself was seen shedding tears at the depot. The unfortunate fellow was in company several too fast.

Duff Emmertling usually plays a fine game, and it was a big surprise to every one when he fell down so hard. It looked as though he was far enough away from Walton to escape the fever. He was throwing them wild, but will not do it any more, he says, and that is sufficient.

For four innings each side scored a goose egg and from the manner in which Good was putting them over it was feared that if any runs were made at all it would all be done on the other side. Had he cut out sending locals down to first on four balls his game would have been as pretty as one would wish to see. Poor support had him up against it, and it is a wonder that he held up as he did. Fourteen strike-outs is no small thing, and it is said that the local management had their eyes on the lad, too.

Taylor started the excitement for the visitors. He surprised himself by landing a pretty single and stole second while G. Weber was being struck out. J. Sevens scored him when he singles and he also got excited when Leight was fanning. Two good throws by Emmertling would have prevented the steals. Good popped a little one to short and Walton stood as a stone statue while it dropped within six inches of his face. Harker could have nabbed it, but it was not his ball and the blame goes to the man that arrived in the city with a trunkload of good recommendations. Copeland knocked another one down to short and while Walton was throwing it at an imaginary second base J. Sevens scored. A. Sevens walked on a fielder's choice and Mortimer ended the performance by batting one at Walton that even Harker could have handled.

The runs for the locals did not come in bunches. They were distributed among three innings. Davis got the first one in the sixth by a hit, a steal and a walk on Winters' single. Wallace was credited with the next one reaching second on a two bagger and crossing the plate when McNutt pounded out a single. Davis made the third one without trouble, landing on third after placing a nice one in right field and at home on Murphy's single.

Features of the Game.
It was no fault of Good's that the visitors lost.
The Pennsylvania youths came expecting a shutout and it was a hard proposition for them to keep the ground when the fifth was over.

Practice makes perfect; Tommy Davis needs very little more.
Poor Walton comes from too far down the river. It may have been stage fright, though.

Taylor tried hard enough to outdo Davis, but he fell short in several points. He was all right at that.
Murphy is the lad that can always be depended upon. They never shoot too high for him and with the stick he has proven better than the average.

WELLSVILLE TEAM

Grounds in Shape And the Base Ball Season Will Open Saturday.

The suits for the Wellsville base ball team arrived Saturday morning. They are of dark gray with the word "Wellsville" in large letters over the breast. The diamond is all rolled and in the best of condition. The grand stand is nearly completed and when finished it will be one of every convenience and will seat about 300 people comfortably. The fence surrounding the grounds is completed.

All the players are expected to arrive today and hard practice will be had all this week. The manager refused to give out the lineup, as some changes are likely to be made before the first game.

The season will open Saturday, May 9, with the Sycamore Athletic club, of Pittsburg. This team has a good record and have considerable practice already this season and promise to put up a good game. The Wellsville boys, however, are confident of victory, but will practice hard all week for the game. The game which will no doubt create considerable excitement is the one with the East Liverpool Athletic club on May 13 and 14. There has always been a great deal of contention between the sports of both cities and both teams will try hard to come out victorious. A large crowd is expected at the game Saturday.

Lisbon Boys Beaten.
A very interesting game of base ball was played Saturday on the mill diamond, Wellsville, between two juvenile teams, one of that city and the other of Lisbon. The Wellsville boys trimmed up the visitors to the tune of 18 to 12. Charles Wilson officiated. The feature of the game was the batting of the Wellsville lads. The Lisbon boys came in the morning in a spring wagon and returned early that evening.

ECZEMA SETS THE SKIN ON FIRE

No disease causes so much bodily discomfort, or itches, and burns like Eczema. Beginning often with a slight redness of the skin it gradually spreads, followed by pustules or blisters from which a gummy, sticky fluid oozes which dries and scales off or forms bad looking sores and scabs. It appears on different parts of the body but oftentimes upon the back, arms, hands, legs and face, and is a veritable torment at times, especially at night or when overheated.

The cause of Eczema is a too acid and general unhealthy condition of the blood. The terrifying itching and burning is produced by the overflow through the glands and pores of the skin of the fiery poisons with which the blood-current is overloaded. While external applications, such as washes, soaps, salves and powders are soothing and cooling

HOME AFFAIRS.

Brief Notes of a Personal Nature And of Matters About Town.

A Baby Boy—Mr. and Mrs. James N. McFarland, of Fourth street, report the arrival of a fine baby boy on Saturday.

Parish Meeting—A meeting will be held tonight of parishioners of St. Stephen's parish for the purpose of electing vestrymen and hearing annual reports.

Church Socials—Cake socials were held Saturday afternoon by ladies of both the Presbyterian and Christian churches. Both were well attended and profitable.

G. A. R. Excursion—All those desiring to attend the G. A. R. encampment at Marietta are requested to hand their names to W. H. Surles, Justice Daniel McLane or Mack Anderson as soon as possible. A special car may be secured if enough persons are going. Fare for the round trip, $2.40, open to the public.

The Society Agreeably Entertained at the Home of E. W.
Fowler.

The children of the Mother's Jewel society of the First M. E. church spent an afternoon and evening of unusual pleasure on Saturday from 2 to 7 o'clock at the home of Mrs. E. W. Fowler on Fifth and Jackson streets. The early part of the afternoon was spent in games and at 6 o'clock on the spacious lawn of the Fowler home was served a luncheon which the children greatly enjoyed.

Following the luncheon a brief but excellent musical program was given by the children as follows: Song, "America," by the society; song, "The Daisy and the Raindrops," Gertrude Kirk; recitation, "My Son John," David Pratt; piano solo, Miss Agnes Jones; solo, Mildred Weaver; boys' trio; solo, Isabel Pratt; piano solo, Miss Agnes Jones.

The little children belonging to this society are greatly enjoying the meetings which take place at the home of Mrs. Fowler on stated days. The officers of the society who assisted Mrs. Fowler in entertaining were: President, Edith Cripps; vice president, Helen Viney; secretary, Isabel Pratt; treasurer, Mrs. E. W. Fowler; pianist, Edith Cripps.

New Century Club.

A meeting of the new Century club will take place next Saturday, May 9, at the home of Miss Newell. The program will be on interesting literary subjects. "American Social Reforms and Reformers" will be the theme of a paper read by Mrs. Laughlin. Miss Hazlett has taken the subject, "God in the Affairs of Nations." Current events will be discussed by Mrs. Holway, and the afternoon will be made a profitable literary one.

HARRY M'FARLAND

NOW RECOVERING

VICTIM OF PRACTICAL JOKE HAS HAD SERIOUS TIME.

Police Vigilance Will Be Exercised to Prevent Barbarity in Future.

Harry McFarland, the victim of the practical joke played upon him while he was sleeping in a second street saloon the first of last week, is reported better. The terrible burns are healing a little and it is thought by continued careful treatment that he will eventually recover. The cause for the greatest fear as to his injuries arose from the fact of financial embarrassment, he having no money, which to secure proper treatment was a most essential feature. After the exclusively publication in the News Review of the cowardly and despicable act, the perpetrators becoming alarmed because of their exposure, immediately hunted the injured man up and promised to stand all expenses and repay him in various other ways if he would not prosecute. Though he is doing nicely now, he still suffers excruciating pain and is in abject misery at times. He is very joyful over the outlook for recovery.

It is learned, since the story of this one heathenish act leaked out, that there are few men that lounge around several resorts on Smoky Row that are free from scars and awful burns as the result of former brutal practices. The practice has been in vogue for a year and while McFarland is the only one that has been badly enough to give cause for alarm, others have been terribly injured.

The police have determined to put a stop to the so-called fun-making and arrest every man found implicated in playing such jokes in the future. The penalty for the offense is imprisonment in the penitentiary and the guilty parties will get the full extent of the law.

ELABORATE PROGRAM

Prepared for the Social to Be Held By the Clerks Tomorrow
Evening.

Grocery and butcher clerks' union No. 292 of this city has arranged for a social session to be held at its hall over the postoffice tomorrow evening. An elaborate program has been prepared, which includes a number of addresses by members and their friends. One of the most pleasing numbers on the program will be an address by Elijah W. Hill, who assisted in the work of organizing the union in this city several years ago.

The local is now in a prosperous condition, having a very large membership and an agreement with the merchants which makes the conditions of work and hours the best in this section of the state. It is likely the meeting Tuesday night will have the effect of interesting a large number of clerks who are eligible to membership, but who have not affiliated with it.

to do. All the delegates were properly qualified, as there were no contests or irregularities to pass upon.

President Hughes appointed these committees:
Credentials committee—E. L. Hatton, R. H. Smith, John Kidd, James Marriott, Aaron Coleman and W. J. McKeone.

The credentials committee met in executive session immediately after the speech of President Hughes in reply to Mayor Sweeney and reported this afternoon.

The session this afternoon was largely taken up by the reports of the national officers and practically nothing else will be considered today.

The members of the executive board, who preceded the delegates to the convention city, had very little to do. The questions brought to its attention were of minor importance and these were disposed of in a very short time. The board will make no recommendations to the convention.

The auditing committee soon completed its labors, as the books of every national officer had been kept in such a way as to make this work a very simple matter. The books of every officer were in shipshape order.

Patrick Duffy and Len Martin, representing the Camden local, and Joseph D. Bradley, Charles W. Hulton, James Marriott, Patrick F. Culbertson, Daniel O'Connor, Thomas Walkett, George Dix, W. H. Wooton, George Martin, of the Trenton locals, held an informal reception yesterday afternoon at the Brunswick. Misses Miller and Bauch, representing Ford City, are also at this hostelry.

First Vice President Hutchins, Charles Fulton and James Braithwaite are at the Grand Central. Major Adams, Shelton Moore, R. A. Webber and Thomas Doherty, of East Liverpool, are all at this hostelry.

Mr. Hutchins is a conspicuous figure among the delegates. He is popular and congenial, and yesterday spent most of the time renewing old acquaintances. Under no circumstances will he be a candidate, either for president or secretary. A reporter yesterday afternoon put the question to him point blank.

"I couldn't think of becoming a candidate for president," he said. "Any report that I am a candidate did not come from me," he continued. "If the delegates persisted and selected me I

QUICK RESULTS.

A lost watch, which had been advertised in another paper, was restored to the owner Saturday evening within an hour after the owner had advertised the loss in the News Review. It pays always to advertise in the paper that the people read.

would decline to accept. It would mean that I leave Trenton for East Liverpool, which would require more sacrifices than I can make.

"Are you a candidate for secretary?" the reporter asked.

"I've never given it a thought," he replied, "because the same obstacles would be encountered. My mother is growing old and she has requested that I stay in Trenton with her. This request I cannot disregard."

"Will you accept the first vice presidency?" was asked.

This declaration from Mr. Hutchins leaves but one candidate in the field against Secretary Duffy, Harry Haines, of Wheeling. There is some sentiment among the Wheeling delegates for Mr. Haines, but underlying it there is a desire that Mr. Duffy be Hughes' successor. Mr. Haines is not making any campaign and Mr. Duffy is maintaining a dignified silence. Some of the delegates say it is doubtful whether Mr. Duffy will stand for the presidency, but the majority believe he will accept if called upon. He certainly has the call for the honor and it is up to him to accept or decline.

The question as to who will succeed Mr. Duffy as secretary is much more complex. National Treasurer Woods is a candidate and he has at least two opponents from East Liverpool, P. J. McKeone and Frank Gratton. So far no candidates outside of East Liverpool, have been announced. It was stated yesterday that the kilnmen will give Mr. Woods, who is from this branch of the trade, their warmest support. The kilnmen are represented among the national officers solely by Mr. Woods and his position is not one of great emolument.

Messrs. Gratton and McKeone have strong supporters, and as both are well qualified, the contest may prove very interesting.

The question of a uniform scale, which will include the eastern arm of the organization, will be one of the most important with which the convention has to deal. The eastern general ware pressers, dippers and perhaps one other branch of the trade, have endorsed the uniform scale now in force in the western plants, but the kilnmen and jiggersmen are not satisfied with it. The kilnmen have instructed their delegates to insist upon a revision of the scale, giving this entire branch an increase. This resolution will not cause a great deal of trouble, but an acceptable solution for the jiggersmen promises to be of great difficulty. It was authoritatively stated yesterday that the jiggersmen were opposed to the present uniform list for the east. The western jiggersmen will ask for increases and this may make it more acceptable. As yet no solution has been advanced.

The delegates will go the guests tomorrow evening of the Wheeling locals at the Grand opera house, where a first-class specialty company is the attraction. Thursday night they will be banqueted at the Pythian Castle, which event will be preceded by a trolley ride over the Wheeling Traction company's lines. Many other informal entertainments will be enjoyed.

Secretary T. J. Duffy, who, if he says the word will no doubt be President Hughes' successor, is a guest at the McClure.

President Hughes is the guest of his mother in the East End. Major Adams, the veteran dipper, is a prominent figure among the delegates.

George Logan, of Findlay, is the delegate from the newest local in the Brotherhood, No. 67. He is a veteran presser and has been employed in Bell's plant for 14 years.

E. L. Hatton, of No. 32, is the busiest man in Wheeling. Saturday noon he left his dinner to outdo the fire department in reaching a blaze in the East End. It was a false alarm; but Ed did not show up until late in the afternoon. The supposition is he lost his way. He now carries a city directory.

All the early arrivals were over at Bridgeport this morning to meet the big delegation from East Liverpool.

E. N. Croxall, delegate from No. 4, East Liverpool, left for that city this afternoon, to be sworn in as councilman at large, and will return at once to participate in the convention.
